PREFACE

It is a matter of surprise that, since the days of Lowndes and of Henry Bohn, no serious attempt should have been made to supply British and American book-collectors with a trustworthy and satisfactory guide.

For the early sixties, Lowndes's Bibliographer's Manual, in Henry Bohn's able recast, was quite a remarkable production. In view of the present requirements, both of bibliographers and bibliophiles, it is desperately antiquated.

First of all, we know much more about English and American books than half a century ago. In various fields, the labours of such eminent men as William Blades, Henry Bradshaw, Gordon Duff, Alfred Pollard, William Greg, Thomas J. Wise, and in America, Wilberforce Eames and Luther S. Livingston, have, so to speak, given to English bibliography the status of an exact science. Even Hazlitt's shortcomings should not close our eyes to his painstaking and meritorious efforts. Many elaborate monographs, much detail work of high value by scholars too numerous to be even briefly mentioned, several extensive and accurate catalogues of great collections or important loan exhibitions, lastly the publications of such learned societies as the London Bibliographical Society or the New York Grolier Club, supply the student with a vast quantity of the most valuable material.

The present book should — if it really does serve its purpose — prove a useful guide through these great bibliographical storehouses, furnishing the collector with a certain amount of indispensable information and telling him, in almost every case, where he may obtain a more minute knowledge of the same subjects.

In this new Book Collector's Guide are described, in the alphabetical order of the authors, the two or three thousand British and American books which fashion has decided are the most desirable for the up-to-date collector. Any such selection is obviously open to criticism and I crave the indulgence of any reader who may reproach me for the omission of his or her favourite title. It may not therefore be quite unnecessary to explain in a few words what I have attempted to include and what, on the other hand, I have purposely omitted.

First of all and as the backbone of my work, I have sought to list, with a certain amount of completeness, the first editions of the chief works and in many cases of all the works of the greater British and American authors from Chaucer to Swinburne. With the exception, for some nineteenth century authors, of Slater's First Editions (1894), a book which did much good service in its day, there is nowhere a list anything like as full as the one contained in this volume: it incorporates the substance of all the latest monographs on each individual author and in several instances will supply the only conveniently accessible list of an author's first editions.

As might be expected, the authors on whom this Guide gives the fullest and most reliable information are those for whom special bibliographies have already been published. In such cases, the compiler of a handbook has no alternative but bare-faced plagiarism and his soundest excuse for appropriating the labours of other workers is a natural desire to give a larger public the benefit of elaborate but often unobtainable monographs. That he has, in many instances, received the most liberal permission so to do is a clear testimony to the unselfishness of fellow-bibliographers.

With a view to the great attention paid by modern collectors to English dramatic literature, I have endeavoured to be fairly complete in this direction and have included the first editions (but not the subsequent impressions) of practically all English plays of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. In this field, I have derived invaluable assistance from W. W. Greg's

List of English Plays (1900) and List of Masques (1902) copies of which should be on the reference-shelf of every collector.

For English books before 1600, those which are chiefly of typographical interest have, in spite of their rarity and market value, been very sparingly included. For the earliest period, Gordon Duff's English books of the Fifteenth Century (1916) supplemented by my Census of Caxtons (1909) and, for the beginning of the sixteenth century, by the Bibliographical Society's Handlists of English Printers will supply much of the information here withheld.

May I further observe that, as regards the inclusion or omission of many rare literary items of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, the rule I have followed has been to take into account, not only the intrinsic interest of each volume, but also the accidental fact of a copy having turned up in a recent great sale.

For many of the more prolific authors of the seventeenth, eighteenth, and nineteenth centuries, lack of space has compelled me to give but a selection of their works. It has not been my purpose, for instance, to attempt a full bibliography of Swift or Defoe.

Likewise, for modern writers, I have been in many cases extremely exclusive and I pray the many admirers of such men as Andrew Lang, George Moore, Bret Harte, and Mark Twain, to excuse me for having reduced to a minimum the paragraphs relating to these and a few other authors. Shall I add that such first editions, although already collected with much ardour, are not yet all real collectors' books, stricto sensu: their market value, for instance, is still, in most cases, extremely indefinite.

Illustrated books have always appealed to collectors of every country. Due regard has been therefore paid to all English books of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries remarkable for the plates they contain, and particular care has been expended on the early nineteenth century books with coloured engravings. Admirers of Alken, Cruikshank, and Rowlandson will find here an ample selection of their works. Likewise Blake has been, with the kind assistance of Dr. Geoffrey Keynes, as fully listed as space permitted.

Americana have received special attention and a number of valuable items have been entered, more with a view towards selective illustration than towards absolute completeness, since full information on this branch of bibliography is to be found in the works of Sabin, Eames, Evans, and others, as also in the Carter Brown catalogue and in G. W. Cole's elaborate volumes on the Church collection.

The bulk of the other books included in this Guide consists of the numerous standard works "no gentleman's library should be without," sets, series, and single items consecrated by two centuries of fashion, found in all great British and American libraries and covering a variety of volumes from the stately county histories to the earliest Bradshaw, and Gould's or Audubon's ponderous ornithological folios.

Books are arranged in the alphabetic order of authors, the productions of each writer being listed chronologically. Much might be said in favour of listing alphabetically under each author his various works: the merits of both systems have been carefully considered and the chronological order been finally adopted, as emphasizing better the development of each author's genius, the rarity and value of many juvenilia and the great literary interest of series so classified.

It is a matter of some regret that it has not proved feasible to print in full the title and imprint of every book described. For sake of brevity the titles have been in many instances notably shortened, the spelling in most cases completely modernized and the imprints considerably abbreviated. The object has always been to give enough to insure identification, but by no means to supply a full bibliographical description of every item. However, when variations occur between the copies of a particular edition, the fact has been usually noted and the "points" distinguishing the earliest issues placed on record. Collectors of nineteenth century volumes will frequently find noted the existence of a publisher's wrapper or cover. Collations have been systematically omitted (this again for sake of brevity), but the presence of portraits and frontispieces, the existence and number of plates has usually been carefully registered. For it must be kept in mind that this book, although compiled by a bibliographer, is not a bibliography but a collector's guide. The information given is such as a collector seems likely to require, the information omitted, such as he does not, as a rule, seem anxious to possess. Experience alone will prove how correctly I have gauged the average collector's needs and wishes.

A prominent feature in this and all other handbooks of the same kind is the much vexed question of prices. Prices there must be or the Book Collector's Guide would be unworthy of its title; but what prices? Prices at which the books can be bought or prices at which they may be sold? Prices in London or prices in New York? Prices in small semi-confidential auction-rooms or record prices paid in famous sales? So many considerations influence the market value of a printed book that it is in many cases quite hopeless to lay down a hard and fast rule. However, for the vast majority of volumes, it is in my opinion quite possible to quote prices which to a first class bookseller may serve as a practical basis for the purchase or sale of a good standard copy.

The prices here given are the result of a long and careful study of the English and American book market and represent as a rule the averages of a number of sales of each book in the most recent New York and London auctions. Any reader may test the accuracy of these valuations with the help of such invaluable reference works as Book Prices Current (London, since 1887), American Book Prices Current (New York, since 1895) and Livingston's Auction Prices of Books (1905). All I claim is that such a valuation gives a general indication as to the kind of price a good copy might bring in a well advertised sale, under normal competition; but it is quite likely that the copy might sell for much less or much more. To emphasize this more strongly, the general valuation of each book is, in most cases, followed by examples taken from recent sale-records showing what prices have actually been obtained at auction for individual copies. This will, as often as not, enable book-buyers to form an independent opinion, as care has been taken to note only such prices as are fairly representative. This has been carried so far that, for many early plays, no price has been quoted, merely because no recent and representative record could be discovered.

The great Huth sale in London and, in New York, the recent Hoe, Huntington, Hagen, and Herschell V. Jones sales, have supplied me with a number of "record prices" showing how highly really fine books are valued by the modern collector. When a book has once sold for an enormous price and another copy turns up unexpectedly, the price of the new example is always strongly influenced by the former record. Such fancy prices are not, as many people believe, sporadic instances of an individual collector's excitement, but have in many cases a permanent influence on the book-market of the world.

The approximate valuations prefixed to these lists of auction records are in every case given in dollars and may be taken on the whole—except for some works in which only English collectors seem to specialize—to express the prices prevailing rather on the New York than on the London market. In establishing them, I have received much invaluable assistance from the late George D. Smith, who had hoped to be able to publish this Guide and who gave me on innumerable occasions the benefit of his extensive knowledge of the American book-market.

I now come to the most pleasant part of an author's duties: to thank the many book lovers who have helped me in my work. First of all, Mr. Charles W. Clark, to whose encouragement this book, born in the trenches of the Somme, owes its present shape and without whose generous assistance it would possibly never have been published. And secondly, Miss Henrietta C. Bartlett, whose share in my labours has been so considerable that in all fair justice her name should have appeared on the title page. Not only did she continually assist me in the collection of data, the preparation of the copy, and the arduous reading of the proofs, but her accurate mind and well-balanced judgment have done more than I am able to express towards making this Guide acceptable to the public and useful to the general reader.

Bibliography is a path full of pitfalls. If I have escaped many a treacherous trip I owe it to the kindness of two eminent specialists who with unfailing courtesy and untiring patience have continually revised both my manuscript and my proof-sheets. What Mr. Beverly Chew does not know about old English books and what has escaped Mr. Thomas J. Wise concerning English authors of the nineteenth century, everybody will grant is of scant interest to anyone. It is an extraordinary and undeserved piece of good fortune to have secured their unlimited coöperation and I am glad of it for my reader's sake, even more than for my own.

If this Guide is, to a certain extent, a rough survey of the latest born American private libraries, it is to the owners of these libraries that I must tender the expression of my gratitude. My book would lose much of its interest if I had not been able to place on record the most recent purchases of Messrs. Charles W. Clark, William A. Clark, Jr., J. L. Clawson, Carl Pforzheimer, A. E. Newton, Cortlandt F. Bishop, and Mortimer L. Schiff, to name only a few.

Among the older collectors, Mr. W. A. White and Mr. Beverly Chew have proffered me the most hospitable welcome and allowed me full use of the elaborate manuscript catalogues of their libraries prepared some years ago by Miss Bartlett.

If my bibliographical labours have been conducted in America under the most favourable conditions, I owe it especially to the hospitality of the Grolier Club, to the riches of the Club's library and to the constant help of the Club's librarian, Miss Ruth Granniss. In Cambridge, Mr. G. P. Winship and Mrs. Luther S. Livingston assisted me in exploring the H. E. Widener collection. In New York, Miss Thurston and Miss Greene threw open to me many of the treasure cupboards of the great Pierpont Morgan library. Regardless of all other considerations than the desire to aid a fellow-bibliographer, Mr. George Watson Cole and his entire staff of expert cataloguers have placed at my disposal the unpublished results of several years' hard work and have spared no trouble to supply me with the fullest details on the vast English and American library gathered by Mr. Henry E. Huntington. Readers of these pages will, thanks to his kindness, be able to form a fairly adequate idea of some of the principal treasures brought together by that most enthusiastic and successful of modern bibliophiles.

The subjoined bibliographical notes give a short list of some of the most useful working tools of the British and American bibliographer.

May the compiler of this Guide conclude these prefatory remarks by craving the indulgence of his readers. In spite of the pains he has taken, many errors, he knows it only too well, must have escaped his attention. He would be glad to hear about them from fellow-workers in the great bibliographical field. Fair criticism of his efforts would, in his opinion, be the pleasantest and most acceptable reward.

ANDREWS (William Loring). 1837-1920

His privately printed works have done much to spread among American bibliophiles the intelligent love and reasoned appreciation of the really "best" books from the collector's standpoint. For that reason if for no other, they would deserve to be collected, but they possess the additional merits of perfect typographical execution and considerable scarcity. Nearly all American collectors have given them — and will continue to give them — a place of honor in their libraries.

The following information may be supplemented from the Bibliography of books issued in limited editions by William Loring Andrews during the years 1885 to 1908 inclusive. Third edition, privately printed (New York, 1911. 8°).

BIBLE

Of the innumerable books relating to the bibliography of the English Bible by far the most complete and the most reliable is T. H. Darlow and H. F. Moule, Historical catalogue of the printed editions of Holy Scripture in the library of the British and Foreign Bible Society. (London, 1903-1911. 2 vols. 8°.)

In the following list are included only a few editions of particular importance for the bibliographer and collector.

The New Testament. [Cologne, Peter Quentell, 1525]. 4°.

The first edition of Tindale's translation. Only known by a fragment of 31 leaves rescued from a binding (British Museum, Grenville library). Reprinted in facs. by E. Arber (London, 1871. 4°).

The New Testament. [Worms, Peter Schoiffer, 1525]. 4^e.

Tindale's translation. The second edition, only known by two imperfect copies (Bristol and St. Paul's Cathedral). Reprinted in facs. by F. Fry (Bristol, 1862. 4°). For this and the subsequent editions of the New Testament, see Fry, A bibliographical description of the editions of the New Testament, Tyndale's version (London, 1878. 4°).

The Pentateuch. Malborow, Hans Luft, 1530. 5 parts in 1 vol. 8°.

Tindale's translation. Only three perfect copies are known. 1. Brit. Mus. (Grenville); 2. £940 John Quicke (5 July 1905, n. 42) old calf, subsequently in the Thomas coll. at Philadelphia (now J. P. Morgan); 3. £455 Huth (Nov. 1911, n. 702) russia (now J. P. Morgan).

A second issue, of equal rarity, bears the date of 1534.

The Bible. [Zurich, Christopher Froschover?], 1535. Fol.

Coverdale's translation. The first printed Bible in the English language.

No absolutely perfect copy is known to exist; the map at the end of the Pentateuch is nearly always wanting. Fry could only trace of this map four halves and two complete impressions. The least imperfect copies are those of Lord Leicester, the Marquess of Northampton, the Rylands Library and the Pierpont Morgan Library (from Lord Ashburnham's sale: £820, June 1897, n. 49); this last only wants the title, half the map and one of the prel. leaves; a fine copy, wanting title, map and two prel. leaves, £400 Perkins (June 1873, n. 191), resold £360 Benson (1875, n. 18), £385 Amherst (Dec. 1908, n. 99) and $3700 Wallace (March 1920, n. 56); a copy lacking the map and some 15 leaves, $3000 Appleton (Apr. 1903, n. 14), now Pierpont Morgan Library; £200 Wilson (May 1916, n. 56) mor., by Lewis, wanting only the map and the prel. leaves, resold $3600 Robinson (Apr. 1918, n. 77) now Huntington.

The second issue, with the date 1536, seems only to be known by the late Lord Carysfort's fine copy, bought for £680 at the Osterley Park sale (May 1885, n. 195), and by the copy at Gloucester Cathedral.

The Bible. London, R. Grafton and E. Whitchurch, 1539. Fol.

The "Great Bible" of which seven editions with minor variations (1539-1541) have been discovered and fully described by F. Fry, A description of the Great Bible (London, 1865. Fol.).

Perfect copies of all these editions are very scarce. — £405 Amherst (Dec. 1908, n. 104), 2d ed., old mor.

The Bible. Edinburgh, Alex. Arbuthnot, 1579. Fol. (The New Testament bears the imprint: Edinburgh, T. Bassandyne, 1576.)

Complete copies are of the greatest scarcity and not one has been sold for many years.

The Holy Bible. London, Robert Barker, 1611. Fol.

The first edition of the "Authorised Version." There are two editions known as the "He" and "She" Bible (the "He" being the earlier), from a variant reading in Ruth III, 15. The variations between the different editions and issues are fully discussed by F. Fry, A description of the Great Bible (London, 1865. Fol.) and by W. E. Smith, A study of the great "She" Bible in The Library, 1890, pp. 1-11, 96-102 and 141-153.

Copies are not scarce, but few are in really fine condition.

The 1813 edition, which also exists on large paper, is worth nearly as much.

BLAKE (William). 1757-1827

The two standard works on Blake are Alexander Gilchrist, Life of William Blake, new and enlarged ed. (London, Macmillan, 1880. 2 vols. 8°) and The Works of William Blake, edited by E. J. Ellis and W. B. Yeats (London, Quaritch, 1893. 3 vols. 8°).

The most satisfactory account for the bibliographer and collector is to be found in Catalogue of books, engravings, water-colors and sketches by William Blake (New York, Grolier Club, 1905. 8°) compiled by H. W. Kent. Further details on the separate engravings are given in Archibald

G. B. Russell, The engravings of William Blake (Boston and New York, Houghton, Mifflin, 1912. 4°).

All the booklets privately engraved, printed and coloured by Blake, in a peculiar manner and by processes of which he was the inventor, are ardently sought for by collectors and the small number of extant copies singularly enhances the value of their possession. Such a fastidious collector as William Beckford had beautiful copies of Blake's works. The best set dispersed of late years belonged to Lord Crewe (Sotheby's, 30 March 1903) and had been formed by his father, R. Monckton Milnes.

Fine series belong to W. A. White and H. E. Huntington.

As nearly every copy shows individual variations, the information contained in the following list is by necessity of a summary nature.

Poetical Sketches by W. B. London, 1783. 8°.

BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER

The bibliography of the early editions of the Book of Common Prayer (1549-1552) presents innumerable intricacies, the details of which would be entirely out of place in this handbook. Each edition is apparently known in several varieties, though the whole of the book was not in every case set up afresh. The earliest dated issues bear the name of Edward Whitchurch, 7 March 1549 and Richard Grafton, 8 March 1549.

Copies of these early issues (down to 1552) bring $400-500 and the earliest are worth more.

$15-25.

BUTLER (Samuel). 1612-1680

Hudibras. London, 1663-1678. 3 vols. 8°.

The difficult tangle of questions connected with the first issues of Hudibras has been unravelled by Beverly Chew, Some notes on the three parts of Hudibras, in The Bibliographer, I (1902) pp. 123-138.

Part I. Pirated. First issue: Hudibras. The first Part. Written in the time of the late Wars. London, Printed in the year, 1663. Rose and thistle on title-page. Errata on last leaf (H 8).

Part I. Pirated. Second issue. Same title-page. No errata, the text having been corrected.

Part I. Pirated. Third issue. Same text on title-page, but, instead of the rose and thistle, a triangle of typographical ornaments.

Part I. Authorized. First issue. London, Printed by J. G. for Richard Marriot, under Saint [written in full] Dunstan's Church in Fleetstreet, 1663.

Part I. Authorized. Second issue. The title page bears St. instead of Saint. (Collation A-H⁸).

Part I. Authorized. Third issue. Title-page as in second issue, but 12° instead of 8°. (Collation A-E¹²F⁶). The Impri-matur is either on the verso of A1 or on the verso of A2.

Part II. Genuine. First issue. Hudibras. The Second Part. (Ornament). London, Printed in the year 1663.

Part II. Spurious. Second issue. Instead of the ornament, we have an extra line with the words: The last Edition corrected.

Part II. Genuine. First issue. Hudibras. The Second Part. By the Authour (sic) of the First. London, Printed by T. R. for John Martyn and James Allestry . . . 1664.

Part II. Genuine. Second issue. Same wording but Author and not Authour.

Part III. First issue. London, Printed for Simon Miller . . . 1678. With a leaf of errata. The A of PART is under the letters rd of Third.

Part III. Second issue. Without the leaf of the errata, these having been corrected in the text. Same title-page, but A of PART is under the letters ir of Third.

The present value of copies depends more on their condition than on the actual issue to which they belong.

£ 60 Sotheby's, 20 June 1904, n. 125, orig. sheep the 3 parts; £ 43 Sotheby's, 1 July 1902, n. 892, part I only, presentation copy; $240 Hermann (March 1909, n. 90) mor., by Rivière, the 3 parts.

BYNG (John). 1704-1757

The Trial of the Hon^{ble} Admiral Byng. London, for J. Lacy, 1757. 8°.

General Wolfe's copy with his MS. notes (see The Times, 28 May 1914) was sold for £85 at Sotheby's, 23 July 1914, n. 548 and is now in the Huntington coll.

BYRON (George Gordon, Lord). 1788-1824

A full bibliography of Byron will shortly be published by Mr. T. J. Wise. Meanwhile the collector will have to consult the lengthy bibliography by E. H. Coleridge in vol. VII of The Works of Lord Byron (London, J. Murray, 1904. 4°).

A fine set of Byron's works, uniformly bound by Rivière was sold en bloc for £890 at the Huth sale (Nov. 1911, nn. 1153-1186).

Fugitive Pieces. Newark, S. and J. Ridge, 1806. 4°.

Only 100 copies were issued and all but 4 were destroyed: 1. T. J. Wise, the Becher-Buxton Forman copy in orig. wrapper, from which a facsimile was reprinted (Quaritch 1886); 2. Roe coll., the John Pigot copy, wanting pp. 17-20 and 58-66, afterwards at Newstead Abbey, sold at Sotheby's, 3 June 1918, n. 305 (£200); 3. J. P. Morgan, a copy in orig. wrappers, corrected by Byron for reissue in 1807, £182 Sotheby's, 31 May 1907, n. 349; 4. J. A. Spoor, the Holland-Brammall copy, £445 Sotheby's, 20 Dec. 1912, n. 54, manuscript notes, with some misprints, already corrected in the Becher copy.

Written by Lord Byron at the Crown Hotel, Harrowgate, 1806, to a beautiful Quaker. London, J. Whittingham, 1806. 4°.

Two leaves, printed on one side. — J. A. Spoor (the Huth copy).

Poems on various Occasions. Newark, printed by S. and J. Ridge, 1807. 8°.

A hundred copies of this, the second edition of Byron's poems were printed and nearly all of them were destroyed by the author. — £ 68 Sotheby's, 13 May 1892, n. 1120, boards uncut, Miss Becher's copy (afterwards Huth); £ 129 Sotheby's, 2 Dec. 1901, n. 116, presentation copy with 3 autograph verses; £ 50 Hibbert (Apr. 1902, n. 120) mor., uncut, by Bedford, resold $425 Klein (Febr. 1911, n. 229); £ 168 Arthur (July 1914, n. 126) orig. boards with label (now Pforzheimer); £ 132, Sotheby's, 3 June 1918, n. 306, orig. boards (now C. W. Clark); $1410 Boyle (May 1919, n. 155) orig. boards (Augusta Byron's copy; a copy in orig. boards is in the T. J. Wise coll.

CARLYLE (Thomas). 1795-1881

See R. H. Shepherd, The bibliography of Carlyle (London, Elliot Stock, 1881. 8°) xi-60 pp.

In spite of the interest attached to Carlyle's productions, so few collectors have as yet attempted to bring them together that I must refrain from giving here a complete list. In the 1912 Ashburton sale were many of his first editions in presentation copies, which sold for £10-12 and more.

A late edition (1873) of his Life of Friedrich Schiller sold for £30 Browning (May 1913, n. 551), but it was a presentation copy to Browning.

The rarest Carlyle and perhaps the most interesting is:

Sartor Resartus. In three Books. Reprinted for Friends from Fraser's Magazine. . . London, James Fraser, 1834. 8°.

Some fifty copies were reprinted and only one has been sold of late years: £4.12.0 Sotheby's, 26 Febr. 1912, n. 52, calf. — A copy is in the C. W. Clark coll.

CENTLIVRE (Susannah). 1667(?) - 1723

The first editions of her plays usually sell for $4-5 (see Huth sale 1912, nn. 1392-1405); prices of $10 to 30 were obtained in the Hoe sale (Apr.

1912, III, nn. 589-596); the Huntington coll. contains a fine set combining the best items of both the above sales.

The Works of the celebrated Mrs. Centlivre. London, for J. Knapton, and others, 1760-1761. 3 vols. 12°. Portr. by Taylor.

$25 Hoe (Apr. 1912, III, n. 598) mor., uncut, by Bedford (now Huntington).

CERVANTES (Miguel de). 1547-1616

The History of the valorous and witty Knight Errant Don Quixote. London, W. Stansby for E. Blount and W. Barret, 1612. 4°.

The first part of Shelton's translation and the first edition. Very few copies are known and nearly all are imperfect. — £205 Hodgson's, 24 June 1915, n. 371, old calf.

This edition may easily be told from the following by the ruling of the pages: the first edition alone has border lines on the sides, the second is only ruled at top and bottom.

The History of Don-Quichote. London for E. Blount, 1620. 2 vols. 4°.

The second edition of part I and the first of part II; each has an engraved title-page (the title-page to part I bears no date). There seems to be no printed title-page for part I.

CHAUCER (Geoffrey). 1340(?) - 1400

The Canterbury Tales. N. p., n. d. [Westminster, William Caxton, ab. 1478]. Fol.

This, the first edition of one of the great monuments of English literature, is only known by eleven copies, nearly all imperfect. The last three sold were: £1880 Saunders (June 1896, n. 1182) wanting 2 leaves (now J. P. Morgan); $5000 Hoe (Jan. 1912, II, n. 757) wanting 18 leaves (now Huntington); £905 Huth (June 1912, n. 1547) wanting 16 leaves.

Caxton's second edition (ab. 1484) is also only known by a dozen copies, only one being perfect.

Pyenson's edition (ab. 1490) is equally scarce, the best copy sold being Lord Ashburnham's (June 1897, n. 1046: £233) wanting 2 leaves; while of Wynkyn de Worde's 1498 edition only two or three copies seem to be on record, one in the British Museum, lacking the first 4 leaves, and one in the Pierpont Morgan Library, perfect (£ 1000 Ashburnham, June 1897, n. 1048). The only separate edition of the Canterbury Tales published after 1500 was issued in 1526 by Pynson (£ 260 Huth, June 1912, n. 1548) mor., by Bedford (now H. E. Widener Library?).

CLEMENS (Samuel Langhorne) [MARK TWAIN].

1835-1910

A full bibliography of Mark Twain is beyond the scope of this handbook. Readers are therefore referred to Merle Johnson, A bibliography of the work of Mark Twain (New York and London, Harper, 1910. 8°) and to [Livingston], The works of Mark Twain (New York, Dodd and Livingston, [1911] 8°).

A very fine series is in the Huntington collection; another was in the Tomlinson sale (New York, 20 Jan. 1914).

Perhaps the most desirable item for the general collector is his first book:

The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County and other sketches. By Mark Twain. Edited by John Paul. New York, C. H. Webb, 1867. 16°.

In orig. blue cloth, first issue $20-30. — $43 Powers (Apr. 1911, n. 238) presentation copy. In the same sale and in the Tomlinson sale other first editions of Mark Twain, also inscribed by the author, brought similar prices (up to $62.50).

DEFOE (Daniel). 1660(?) - 1731

See William Lee, A chronological catalogue of the works of Daniel

Defoe (London, 1869. 8°) reprinted (12 copies only) from his Life of Defoe, which may be usefully supplemented from the catalogues of the Huth sale (June 1912, nn. 2105-2297) and the Wrenn Library.

In this handbook, it has seemed advisable to include only three or four of Defoe's innumerable works.

Robinson Crusoe [vol. I]. London, W. Taylor [April] 1719. 8°.—Farther Adventures of Robinson Crusoe, being the second and last Part of his Life [vol. II]. London, W. Taylor, 1719. 8°.—Serious Reflections during the Life and surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe [vol. III]. London, 1720. 8°.

There are two or three variations between copies of the first edition: it is commonly believed (without any decisive reason) that copies of the earliest issue have in vol. I the misprint apyly for apply in the preface, in vol. II, p. 295 wrongly numbered 215 and the verso of the last page of the preface blank.

Irrespective of these "points" good sets are worth about $1000. — £223 Sotheby's, 4 Dec. 1902, n. 403, vol. I only, partly on thick paper, orig. calf; £307 Sotheby's, 18 May 1903, n. 309, orig. calf; $1425 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 1016) mor., by Bedford; $1000 Borden (Febr. 1913, n. 184) mor., by Rivière, resold $1525 H. V. Jones (Dec. 1918, n. 451); $1000 Ives (Apr. 1915, n. 211) by Rivière; $2050 Wallace (March 1920, n. 302) calf, by Pratt (Amherst copy).

Robinson Crusoe also appeared serially in nos. 125 to 289 of The Original London Post beginning 7 October 1719. The Grenville set in the Brit. Mus. is very defective, but a fine set (from the Bliss coll.), only wanting one number, was sold £115 Gott (March 1908, n. 79) and again £50 Gott (July 1910, n. 282); it now belongs to Mr. A. E. Newton.

The Life and strange surprizing Adventures of Robeson Cruso. London, printed for the Book-Sellers of London and Westminster, 1719. 12°.

The recently discovered and much discussed "o" edition, doubtless a very early piracy, badly printed, but showing textual variations possibly derived from De Foe's proof sheets.

Three copies are on record: 1. Dr. Laidlaw Purves; 2. Brit. Mus.; 3. £12 Browning (May 1913, n. 605) imperfect. See The Library, IV (1913) pp. 204-220 and 338-352.

Robinson Crusbe. London, T. Cadell and W. Davies, 1820. 8°. 20 pl. and 2 vignettes by Heath.

$30-40 on large paper. — £14 Hibbert (Apr. 1902, n. 235) mor.

Robinson Crusoe. London, W. Nichol for J. Major, 1831.

2 vols. 8°. 2 frontisp. by Cruikshank and 35 engravings in the text.

$15-25 and on large paper $30-40. — £10.15.0 Mackenzie (March 1889, n. 452) mor., large paper.

The Fortunes and Misfortunes of the famous Moll Flanders. London, W. Chetwood, 1721. 8°.

$200-250 and more. — £130 Sotheby's, 28 July 1904, n. 263, orig. calf; $870 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 1021) mor.; $220 Purdy (Apr. 1917, n. 174) calf, by De Coverly, resold $350 Robinson (Apr. 1918, n. 257); $635 H. V. Jones (Dec. 1918, n. 453) orig. calf.

A Journal of the Plague Year. London, for E. Nutt, 1722. 8°.

$100 Huntington (Nov. 1918, IX, n. 147) old calf (Halsey copy).

The Fortunate Mistress. London, T. Warner, etc., 1724. 8°.

$80-100 and more. — £25 Ford (May 1902, n. 181) mor. (then Halsey, now Huntington); $500 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 1025) mor.; $77 Wood and Whitney (Febr. 1914, n. 134) calf; £42.10.0 Prideaux (Oct. 1916, n. 998) calf, by Rivière (dated 1721); $410 H. V. Jones (Dec. 1918, n. 456) mor., by Sangorski.

Conjugal Lewdness or Matrimonial Whoredom. London, T. Warner, 1727. 8°.

In subsequent issues, the title reads: A Treatise concerning the Use and Abuse of the Marriage Bed . . . etc.

$10-15, and much more with the first title. — £16.10.0 Grant (May 1900, n. 103) calf; $210 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 1034) calf, by Rivière.

DEGREVAUNT. See Kelmscott Press

DEVONSHIRE GEMS

A quarto collection of plates (in all 99?) engraved about 1724 by a Frenchman named Gosmond from the antique gems in the Duke of Devonshire's collection.

The work was never completed and only eight copies are known: 1. Brit. Mus. (from Cracherode, 101 pl.; see Beloe, Anecd., I, 1807, pp. 182-186); 2. Rylands (from Lord Spencer, 99 pl.; see Aed. Althorp., I, pp. 166-172); 3. Chatsworth; 4. Glasgow, Hunterian (from West's sale, 1773, n. 2790: 39 pl.); 5. Lord Bessborough's sale (1848); 6. £ 9 Crawford (June 1887, I, n. 710) calf; 7. £ 5 Fountaine (June 1902, n. 272) old mor., then T. W. Greene, now S. de Ricci; 8. Sold in 1832 by Payne (n. 5922) to Beriah Botfield, possibly the Dent copy (1827, I, n. 1112).

DIAL (The)

The Dial. An occasional Publication, edited by C. S. Ricketts and Charles Shannon. Chelsea, The Vale Press, 1889-1897. 5 parts. 4°.

$30-40. — £ 16.10.0 Sotheby's, 7 March 1901, n. 922, plates in early impressions, unnumbered.

DIALOGUE (A) IN THE SHADES

A Dialogue in the Shades between the celebrated Mrs. Cibber and the no less celebrated Mrs. Woffington. London, Bladon, 1766. 4°.

£ 62.10.0 Mackenzie (March 1889, n. 295) uncut; £ 17 Wright (June 1899, n. 61) mor., uncut, by Rivière.

DIBDIN (Rev. Thomas Frognall). 1776-1847

A selection of his bibliographical works which fetched much higher prices during his lifetime, especially with "suppressed plates" and proofs inserted:

Bibliomania, or Book-Madness. London, 1809. 8°.

The first edition, worth $5-6.—The second edition (1811) fetches about the same price, but the third (1842), much enlarged, is to be preferred:

$10-15 and on large paper $15-20. — £6.10.0 Stanley (June 1901, n. 836) mor., large paper.

At the Quaile sale (May 1901, n. 44) Dibdin's own copy of the 1811 edition enlarged to 5 vols. with numerous plates and autographs added, brought £14.5.0.

The Bibliographical Decameron. London, W. Bulwer, 1817. 3 vols. 8°.

Perhaps the most interesting of all Dibdin's works.

$40-50 and on large paper $100-120. — £38 Edwards (May 1901, n. 171) mor., large paper; £90 Darby (June 1904, n. 54) extra-illustrated.

Bibliotheca Spenceriana. London, W. Bulwer. 1814-1815.

4 vols. 8°.—Ædes Althorpianæ. London. W. Nicol, 1822.

2 vols. 8°.—Catalogue of the Cassano Serra library. London. W. Nicol. 1822. 8°.

A complete set of these seven volumes, describing the celebrated library of Lord Spencer (now in the John Rylands Library, at Manchester) has a place on the shelves of every English book-lover.

$60-80 and on large paper $80-100.

A Bibliographical, Antiquarian and Picturesque Tour in France and Germany. London. W. Bulwer and W. Nicol, 1821. 3 vols. 8°.

Some copies have a suppressed plate of Diane de Poitiers and a series of etchings by Lewis.

$40-50 and on large paper $80-100. — £29.10.0 Perkins (July 1889, n. 623) russia, large paper.

The 1829 reprint is worth $8-10.

A Bibliographical, Antiquarian and Picturesque Tour in the Northern Counties of England and Scotland. London, C. Richards, 1838. 2 vols. 8°.

$25-30 and on large paper $80-100. — £28.10.0 Perkins (July 1889, n. 628) russia, large paper.

DICK (Sir William). 1580(?) - 1655

The lamentable Estate and distressed Case of Sir W. Dick.
London, 1644. Fol.

£22 Perkins (June 1873, n. 390) mor., inlaid throughout.

The three last named works give full particulars of the innumerable "points" by which the various issues of Dickens's early editions may be distinguished: only the more important of these are mentioned in the following pages.

On the Dickens manuscripts, most of which are in the Forster collection (Victoria and Albert Museum), see the Boston Evening Transcript, 25 May 1904.

Sketches by Boz. First [2 vols.] and Second [1 vol.] Series. London, J. Macrone, 1836-1837. 3 vols. 8°. 16 pl. by Cruikshank.

In orig. cloth, green for the First Series and pink for the Second, with labels, $100-120 and more, if both series are first editions. — £37 Bruton (June 1897, n. 140) with 2 extra pl.; $400 Allis (March 1912, n. 244) vols. 1-2 only, presentation copy to McGillivray (now A. E. Newton); $220 Coggeshall (Apr. 1916, n. 71) mor., with 5 orig. drawings by Cruikshank; $315 Austin (Apr. 1917, n. 424) cloth; $650 Anderson's, 13 May 1919, n. 257, presentation copy to Fr. Salmon; $320 Wallace (March 1920, n. 316) cloth (now Miss Ida O. Folsom).

The presentation copy to J. P. Harley of the Second Series is in the H. E. Widener Library.

— [Another edition]. London, Chapman and Hall, 1839.
8°. 40 illustrations by Cruikshank.

The plates exist in India proofs.

In orig. brown cloth $30-40, and in 20 parts (1837-1839) in pink wrappers $300-350. — £ 46 Wright (June 1899, n. 301) in parts; £ 56 Christie's, 31 May 1900, n. 290, orig. wrappers and advertisements; £ 70.10.0 Truman (May 1906, n. 241); £ 65 Hodgson's, 21 Nov. 1907, n. 143, in parts; $385 Dulles (Dec. 1912, n. 208) in parts; $435 Herbert (Febr. 1916, n. 265) in parts; $585 Coggeshall (Apr. 1916, n. 74) presentation copy to Fr. Salmon, resold $650 Anderson's, 13 May 1919, n. 257; $500 Groves (Dec. 1917, n. 139) in parts, autograph added.

Sunday under three Heads, by Timothy Sparks. London, Chapman and Hall, 1836. 8°. 3 illustrations by Phiz and vignette on the title-page, repeated on the wrapper.

The fac-simile reprints, says Slater, have invariably one of the illustrations as a frontispiece; the original has not.

In orig. drab printed wrapper $40-50 (and more with untrimmed edges). — $85 Whiton (Febr. 1911, n. 170) wrapper; £ 14.10.0 Arthur (July 1914, n. 206) calf; $420 Coggeshall (Apr. 1916, n. 75) presentation copy to Th. Mitton (now A. E. Newton); $62.50 Coggeshall (Apr. 1916, n. 76) wrappers, minor defects.

The Village Coquettes, a Comic Opera. London, R. Bentley, 1836. 8°.

In orig. boards (or uncut in sheets) $30-40. — £ 36.10.0 Wright (June 1899, n. 289), presentation copy to J. P. Hullah, play-bill inserted (afterwards in the Harry B. Smith coll.); £ 64 Sotheby's, 6 May 1901, n. 622, advanced proof, presentation copy to J. P. Harley, resold $152.50 Bangs', 21 Oct. 1901, n. 199, and $210 Maier (Oct. 1902, n. 52), now H. E. Widener Library; $430 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 1072) another presentation copy to J. P. Harley, resold $740 Coggeshall (Apr. 1916, n. 78).

Songs, Choruses and Concerted Pieces in the Operatic Burletta of the Village Coquettes. London, Bradbury and Evans, 1837. 8°.

Extremely scarce.

£ 25 Leigh (Dec. 1889, n. 1053).

Songs from the Operatic Burletta of the Village Coquettes. London, Cramer [1837]. Fol. Title-page in colours.
£ 6.6.0 Wright (June 1899, n. 292) mor.

Is she his Wife? Or Something Singular. London, 1837. 8°.

Of this Burletta only one copy had survived which was destroyed in a fire at Osgood's, of Boston, in December 1879.

About 1870, the play was reprinted in London under the title:

Is she his Wife? Or Something Singular, a comic Burletta in one Act by Charles Dickens. N. p., n. d. 12°.

Of this reprint, only three copies are known, all three in America; one of them, in the orig. drab wrapper, $425 Peavey (Dec. 1911, n. 211); another (?) is in the H. E. Widener Library.

The first published edition was issued at Boston, J. R. Osgood, 1877. 16° and is worth in the orig. brown cloth $10-15.

The Posthumous Papers of the Pickwick Club. London, Chapman and Hall, 1837. 8°. Front., engraved title and 41 pl. by Seymour, Buss and Phiz.

Issued in 20 parts (in 19) in green wrappers and subsequently in one volume in cloth. A number of the parts were reprinted several times with re-etched or different plates. This makes it an exceedingly difficult task to obtain a copy throughout of the earliest issue. The eleven "points" required are, according to Eckel:

(1) All covers of the parts must bear the date 1836.

(2) Parts I and II must carry the words "With four illustrations by Seymour."

(3) Part III, the words "With illustrations by W. Buss."

(4) Part IV must have four plates by Seymour, unsigned, and not re-etched by Phiz.

(5) Part II must have three plates by Seymour, signed.

(6) Part III must have the two plates signed "Drawn and etched by R. W. Buss" and the page numbers on them; these plates were subsequently cancelled.

(7) Part IV, the two plates must be indistinctly signed "Nemo" and not "Phiz."

(8) Parts II, III, X and XV must have the addresses by the Author.

(9) Parts XVII, XVIII and XX must have addresses by the Publishers.

(10) Plates in parts I to XII must have no captions only numerical references to the pages where they fit; in parts XIII to XX, they should have neither titles nor numerical references.

(11) On the engraved title-page the name "Veller" on the sign-board over the door should be spelt with a V, not a W.

It is doubtful whether there be half-a-dozen copies in existence satisfying all these requirements (the most perfect in that respect being the Coggeshall and Austin copies); but many fill a more or less considerable proportion of them. That is why ordinary copies are worth bound from $5-10 and in parts from $100-150, while those with the various points command fancy prices from $500 to $5000 according to their individual merits.

The following are a few auction records of remarkable copies:

£ 63 Wright (June 1899, n. 311) contemporary mor., presentation copy to the publisher Edward Chapman (now J. W. Ellsworth); £ 105 Wright (June 1899, n. 309) in parts, presentation copy to Mary Hogarth (afterwards in the Harry B. Smith coll.); £ 85 Wright (June 1899, n. 310) in parts; £ 52 Sotheby's, 3 June 1902, n. 322, presentation copy to W. H. Ainsworth (now H. E. Widener Library); £ 142 Sotheby's, 18 May 1903, n. 895, in parts; $1450 Lapham (Dec. 1908, n. 315) in parts, resold $3500 Wallace (March 1920, n. 317); $1125 Cowdin (Febr. 1916, n. 814) in parts; £ 34 Burgess (May 1894, n. 334), resold £ 495 Sotheby's, 25 May 1914, n. 331, and $5350 Coggeshall (Apr. 1916, n. 82) in parts, with 1 page of the MS., one of the finest copies known (now W. Bunker); equally fine $4500 Austin (Apr. 1917, n. 425) in parts (the Douglas copy, now W. A. Clark, Jr.); $1385 Osborne (Dec. 1916, n. 362) in parts (now Pforzheimer); £ 126 Pittar (Nov. 1918, n. 219) presentation copy to Mrs. H. Delacombe.

Five pages of the manuscript were obtained for £ 450 by Lady Wernher at the Red Cross sale (Apr. 1915, n. 1550); other fragments are known (a chapter from the Foote sale, now in the W. A. White coll., etc., the leaf in the Bunker copy and a page given by W. A. White to the British Museum).

A leaflet announcing the publication of the first number $160 Osborne (Dec. 1916, n. 361).

The Strange Gentleman, a Comic Burletta. London, Chapman and Hall, 1837. 8°. Front. by Phiz.

Very rare with the frontispiece.

In orig. lavender wrapper $400-500. — £ 84 Wright (June 1899, n. 306) with the orig. drawing of the front. (then Halsey, now Huntington); £ 141 Sotheby's, 21 March 1904, n. 69, wrapper, resold (?) $470 Coggeshall (Apr. 1916, n. 77); $1500 Austin (Apr. 1917, n. 429) wrapper, with a contemporary playbill inserted, resold $1675 Wallace (March 1920, n. 319). A copy is known on large paper.

There is a very deceptive fac-simile reprint (see the catalogue of the Grolier Club Exhibition).

Sketches of Young Ladies, by Quiz. London, Chapman and Hall, 1837. 8°. 6 pl. by Phiz.

Ascribed to Dickens, but more probably by E. Caswell.

In orig. boards $20-25.

The Library of Fiction, or Family Story-Teller. London,

Chapman and Hall, 1836-1837. 2 vols. 8°. 14 illustrations by Seymour, Buss and others.

In orig. blue cloth $30-40, but much more in the orig. 14 parts in grey wrappers (extremely scarce). — £13.10.0 Mackenzie (March 1889, n. 647) mor., uncut, by Rivière.

Memoirs of Joseph Grimaldi. London, R. Bentley, 1838. 2 vols. 8°. Portr. and 6 pl. by Cruikshank.

Dickens was only the editor of this work.

The first issue is bound in pink cloth and has no border to the last plate.

In orig. cloth $30-40. — £45 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 1076) mor., by Rivière.

Oliver Twist. London, R. Bentley, 1838. 3 vols. 8°. 24 pl. by Cruikshank.

Copies of the first issue have on the title the author's name as "Boz" (and not Charles Dickens) and contain in vol. 3 the Fireside plate (subsequently replaced by the plate Rose Maylie and Oliver at Agnes's tomb).

In orig. brown cloth $30-40. — £50 Wright (June 1899, n. 345) presentation copy to T. N. Talfourd; £26 Argyll (July 1900, n. 888) presentation copy to J. P. Harley (now Hl E. Widener Library); £44 Sotheby's, 20 May 1909, n. 454, presentation copy to Macready (now A. E. Newton); $430 Matthews and Johnson (Nov. 1910, n. 95) presentation copy to T. Hill; $85 Ives (Apr. 1915, n. 245) orig. cloth, resold $875 Coggeshall (Apr. 1916, n. 90); $120 Coggeshall (Apr. 1916, n. 91) orig. cloth; £120 Puttick's, 29 Apr. 1919, n. 502, presentation copy to T. Mitton.

The 2d ed. (1839) and the 3rd (1841) retain a certain value on account of Cruikshank's illustrations; the 1846 ed., with the same plates, is worth in 10 parts in green wrappers $50-60 and more: £23 Christie's, 31 May 1900, n. 300, in parts; £23.10.0 Douglas (Febr. 1911, n. 188) in parts; with a duplicate Part I in a blue (not green) wrapper, resold $260 Austin (Apr. 1917, n. 445); $145 Coggeshall (Apr. 1916, n. 96) in parts.

A presentation copy to Prof. Felton of the 1842 ed., $825 Scott's, 12 Apr. 1917, n. 105.

DRYDEN (John). 1631-1700

The only attempt towards a Dryden bibliography is the Catalogue of an exhibition of first and other editions of the works of John Dryden. (New York, Grolier Club, 1900. 8°) 101 pp.

Mr. T. J. Wise, Mr. Henry E. Huntington and Mr. William A. Clark, Jr., own very complete collections of Dryden's first editions. The finest series sold were in the Hoe sales and the Winston H. Hagen sale (13 May 1918).

Dryden's first printed production is a poem inserted in R. Brome's Lachrymae Musarum, 1650 (described under BROME).

Three Poems upon the Death of His Late Highness Oliver, Lord Protector of England, Scotland and Ireland. London, William Wilson, 1659. 4°.

The three poems are by Dryden, Waller and Bishop Sprat. For separate editions of Dryden's poem, see hereafter.

$210 Hoe (Apr. 1912, III, n. 3355) mor., by The Club Bindery; $55 Huntington (Febr. 1918, VII, n. 891) boards, uncut (Chew copy); $32.50 Hagen (May 1918, n. 395) calf (Lefferts copy, now W. A. Clark, Jr.).

A Poem upon the Death of His Late Highness Oliver, Lord Protector of England, Scotland and Ireland. Written by Mr. Dryden. London, for William Wilson, 1659. 4°.

As recently discovered by T. J. Wise, this separate edition of Dryden's poem was not printed in 1659 but about 1690, to be inserted in sets of Dryden's works. It has therefore no claim to be considered as a first edition.

$262.50 Hoe (Apr. 1912, III, n. 961) mor., by The Club Bindery (now Huntington); $300 Huntington (Febr. 1918, VII, n. 234) sewn (Halsey copy, now J. L. Clawson); $290 Hagen (May 1918, n. 396) calf, by Rivière (now W. A. Clark, Jr.); $225 H. V. Jones (Dec. 1918, n. 517) mor., by Rivière (now Pforzheimer).

A Poem upon the Death of the Late Usurper Oliver Cromwell, by the Author of the H(in)d and the P(anthe)r. London, for S. H., 1687. 4°.

A scarce pirated reprint of the above poem, published by Dryden's enemies.

ELIOT (John). 1604-1690

See W. Eames in Pilling, Bibliography of the Algonquian Languages (Washington, 1891. 8°) pp. 127-184.

Eliot's eleven "Indian Tracts" are all scarce and highly valued by American collectors. The following is the list:

I. New England's First Fruits. London, R. O. and G. D. for H. Overton, 1643. 4°.

Contains the first printed account of Harvard College.

$420 Huntington (Jan. 1917, III, n. 233) mor., by Bedford, lacking leaf of errata (Britwell copy); £41 Huth (July 1917, n. 5270) calf, by Bedford, also lacking errata.

II. The Day-Breaking, if not the Sun-Rising of the Gospel with the Indians in New England. London, R. Cotes for F. Clifton, 1647. 4°.

Possibly by Thomas Shephard.

$325 Huntington (Jan. 1917, III, n. 261) half-mor., uncut (Britwell copy); £70 Huth (July 1917, n. 5271) calf, uncut, by Bedford.

III. The clear Sun-Shine of the Gospel breaking forth upon the Indians in New England. By Thomas Shephard. London, R. Cotes for J. Bellamy, 1648. 4°.

$210 Huntington (Jan. 1917, III, n. 263) half-mor., by Rivière (Britwell copy); $245 De Vinne (May 1919, n. 174) mor.

IV. The glorious Progress of the Gospel among the Indians in New England. Published by Edward Winslow. London, for Hannah Allen, 1649. 4°.

Acts and Monuments of these latter and perilous Days touching Matters of the church. London, J. Day, 1563. Fol.
 For the collation, see Lowndes and the Huth catalogue.

For many years no absolutely perfect copy of this celebrated book, commonly called Foxe's "Martyrs," was known, even Grenville's (Brit. Mus.) and Douce's (Bodl.) lacking each one leaf. With great difficulty Lord Ashburnham (June 1897, n. 1636: £ 150, now Carysfort coll.) and Huth (June 1913, n. 3019: £ 180, mor., by Bedford, minor defects, now Huntington coll.) succeeded in making up practically complete copies.

FOX (Luke). 1586-1635

North-West Fox, or Fox from the North-West Passage. London, B. Alsop and T. Fawcett, 1635. 4°. Folded map.

FRANKLIN (Benjamin). 1706-1790

See H. Stevens, Benjamin Franklin's life and writings (London, Stevens, 1881. 4°) 40 pp.; P. L. Ford, Franklin bibliography (Brooklyn, 1889. 8°) lxxi-467 pp.; [Luther S. Livingston], Books printed by Benjamin Franklin (New York, Dodd, Mead, Apr. 1906. 8°) 29 pp.; Luther S. Livingston, Franklin and his press at Passy (New York, Grolier Club, 1914. 4°) xii-216 pp; William J. Campbell, The collection of Franklin imprints in the Museum of the Curtis Publishing Company, with a short-title check list of all the books, pamphlets, broadsides, etc., known to have been printed by Benjamin Franklin (Philadelphia, Curtis Publishing Company, 1918. 4°) 333 pp.

The two best collections of Franklin's works belong to William S. Mason, of Evanston, Illinois, and to the Curtis Publishing Company of Philadelphia; this latter collection was formed by Henry V. Massey and John Gribbel. The Henry Stevens collection is now in the Library of Congress.

The following list only embodies a selection of his works.

A Dissertation on Liberty and Necessity, Pleasure and Pain.
Printed in the Year 1725. 8°. 16 leaves.

Only four copies can be traced: 1. Brit. Mus. (Ashbee bequest); 2. Library of Congress (Stevens copy); 3. Boston; 4. £ 1005 Huth (June 1913, n. 3033) half-calf (doubtless the Stevens-Hotten copy).

Poor Richard Almanack. Philadelphia, B. Franklin (and D. Hall), 1733-1792. 12°.

The first years are of extreme scarcity. 1733 is only known by the copy belonging to the Historical Society of Pennsylvania (reprinted in 1894; 1739 sold for $565 Hurst (May 1904, n. 299) sewn, uncut; later volumes bring $40-80 apiece and occasionally more.

Good sets (but far from complete) were in the Proud sale (May 1903) and in Bishop Hurst's sale (May 1904).

From 1767 onwards, the almanack was published by Hall and Sellers of Philadelphia.

Some Observations on the Proceedings against the Rev. Mr. Hemphill. Philadelphia, B. Franklin, 1735. 8°.

No copy has been sold for many years.

The Speech of Samuel Chew, Esq., Chief Justice of the Government of New-Castle. . . . Philadelphia, B. Franklin, 1741. 4°. 16 pp.

It is said that only two copies are known (Beverly Chew coll. and Historical Society of Pennsylvania).

Proposal for promoting useful Knowledge among the British Plantations in America. [Philadelphia, B. Franklin] 1743. Fol. 2 pp. and a blank leaf.

$1300 Henkels', 5 Dec. 1918, n. 315, unbound (Cadwallader Colden's copy).

An Account of the New Invented Pennsylvania Fire Places. Philadelphia, B. Franklin, 1744. 4°. Folding plate.

FRAUNCE (Abraham). 1570(?) - 1633

The Countess of Pembroke's Yvychurch [parts I-II]. London, Thomas Orwyn for W. Ponsonby, 1591. 4°. — The third Part of the Countess of Pembroke's Yvychurch, entitled Amintas Dale. London, for T. Woodcock, 1592. 4°.

Of extreme scarcity in perfect condition: the 3d part is said to be complete only in the Brit. Mus. copy from the Roxburghe sale, and in the W. A. White copy (from Huth sale, June 1913, n. 3038: £ 80); but it is also found in the Beverly Chew copy (now H. E. Huntington) from Gaisford's sale (Apr. 1890, n. 765: £ 38) and in the copy in orig. vell. sold for £ 160 Ailesbury (March 1919, n. 224) now Beverly Chew.

Part II of the 1591 portion is a reprint of an earlier work by Fraunce, "The Lamentations of Amintas for the Death of Phillis" of which four editions are known (1587, 1588, 1589, 1596). — The 1588 ed. £ 120 Huth (June 1913, n. 3037, Bright-Corser copy, now Huntington), said to be the second copy known (one in Brit. Mus.).

The Countess of Pembroke's Emanuel. London, for W. Ponsonby, 1591. 4°.

Possibly an additional part of the Yvychurch, with which it is bound in the Huth-White and in the Ailesbury-Chew copies.

FREISCHUTZ TRAVESTIE. See Globus (Septimus)

FRENEAU (Philip). 1752-1832

A first attempt to list his writings is Fred Lewis Pattee's Bibliography of Philip Freneau, in The Bibliographer, I (1902) pp. 97-106. This is superseded by an elaborate essay from the pen of Victor Hugo Palsits, A bibliography of the separate and collected works of Philip Freneau, together with an account of his newspapers (New York, Dodd, Mead and Co., 1903. 8°).

All are scarce and do not always fetch in auctions such high prices as they deserve; several items of which no copy can now be traced are omitted in the following list.

The American Village, a Poem, to which are added several other original Pieces in Verse. New York, S. Inslee and A. Car, 1772. 12°.

The James Luckey copy, the only one known, was purchased in 1902 for the Library of Congress.

$100-150.

GALLERY OF FASHION

Gallery of Fashion. London, N. Heideloff, v. d. 4°.

A complete set of this periodical should apparently contain 10 vols. from 1794-1803. Several copies sold in late years for £ 50-60 contained only 8 vols. (Apr. 1794-March 1802) with 331 coloured figures. Such was for instance the copy in old mor., which brought £ 76 at Sotheby's, 23 July 1906, n. 453. The titles are often missing.

GAMBADO (Geoffrey) [i.e. Henry William BUNBURY. 1750-1811]

An Academy for grown Horsemen. London, 1787. Fol. 12 pl. by W. Dickinson after Bunbury.

$25-30.

Annals of Horsemanship. London, 1791. Fol. 17 pl.
$15-20.

Of both these works numerous editions exist several with coloured plates, the latter worth $30-40 apiece.

GAMMER GURTON'S NEEDLE

A right pithy pleasant and merry Comedy entitled Gammer Gurton's Needle. By Mr. S. [John Still?]. London, Thomas Colwell, 1575. 4°.

One of the earliest comedies in the English language.

Only twelve copies are known: 1. Brit. Mus. (Grenville); 2. Dyce (Roxburghe-Heber); 3. Bodl.; 4. T. J. Wise (sold at Sotheby's, 27 June 1906, n. 961: £ 180); 5. H. E. Huntington (from Hoe, Nov. 1912, IV, n. 3018: $1010, russia, the Jolley-Lefferts copy); 6. W. A. White (from Rowfant, doubtless the Tite copy); 7. H. C. Folger, wanting last 4 leaves Ashburnham); 8. J. L. Clawson (Huntington-Devonshire copy); 9. £ 700 Huth (July 1918, n. 7085), resold $10,000 H. V. Jones (Dec. 1918, n. 623) old red mor. Only 7 or 8 copies are known: 1. Brit. Mus.; 2. Harvard; 3. Carter Brown; 4. New York Public Library (Barlow); 5. Huntington (Lefferts-Church); 6. £ 76 Ashburton (Nov. 1900, n. 328) unbound; 7. $710 Hoe (Jan. 1912, II, n. 1479) mor., by The Club Bindery; 8. £ 48 Huth (June 1913, n. 3325) mor., by Bedford.

GRAY (Thomas). 1716-1771

See Clark Sutherland Northup, A bibliography of Thomas Gray (New Haven, Yale University Press, 1917. 8°) xiii-296 pp.

An Ode on a distant Prospect of Eton College. London, R. Dodsley and M. Cooper, 1747. Fol. 4 leaves.

Only one copy has been sold for many years: £ 50.10.0 Hodgson's, 11 Jan. 1910, n. 222, unbound, uncut (now T. J. Wise). A damaged copy is in the J. A. Spoor coll.; two copies are in the British Museum and there is one at Mentmore.

An Elegy wrote in a Country Church Yard. London, printed for R. Dodsley in Pall-Mall, and sold by M. Cooper in Pater-Noster-Row, 1751. 4°. 11 pp.

The rare first edition of Gray's Elegy.

The F of FINIS has usually punched a hole in the last leaf.

£ 205 Van Antwerp (March 1907, n. 86) mor., by Rivière; $4500 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 1522) mor., by Bedford (now H. P. Whitney); £ 295 Arthur (July 1914, n. 480) mor., last leaf mended; $4350 Hagen (May 1918, n. 574) mor., by Rivière (the Foote-Codman copy, now C. F. Bishop); £ 655 Pittar (Nov. 1918, n. 289) mor., by Tout; £ 750 Christie-Miller (Dec. 1919, n. 32) mor., by Pratt, with the old blue wrapper preserved (now Pforzheimer).

The author of the recent Bibliography of Thomas Gray only locates copies in the British Museum and Advocates Library, Edinburgh; should he not also have mentioned the beautiful copies owned by several American collectors such as H. E. Huntington, Beverly Chew, W. A. Clark, Jr. (Rowfant copy), J. A. Spoor, J. L. Clawson, Pforzheimer, C. F. Bishop, and H. P. Whitney, not to mention the copy in the H. E. Widener Library. Copies show variations: some have on p. 10 Some hidden instead of Some kindred.

The 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th editions, all printed in the same year (1751) brought at the Hagen sale prices varying from $55 to $111.

An undated folio edition of the Elegy, thought by some to be earlier than the quarto but more probably a piracy of the time, is only known by a copy sold for £49 at Sotheby's, 17 March 1902, n. 555.

A copy of the Elegy, throughout in Gray's autograph, is in the British Museum.

Odes. Strawberry Hill for R. and J. Dodsley, 1757. 4°.

An answer to Heywood's "Apology for Actors."

$150 Huntington (Dec. 1917, V, n. 201) mor., by Rivière (Lefferts copy), resold $170 Hagen (May 1918, n. 592) now J. L. Clawson.

GREENE (Robert). 1560(?) - 1592

It is not possible to attempt to list here his numerous works, all of which are ardently sought for by collectors of Elizabethan literature. All are scarce and command high prices. (See for instance the records in the Huth sale, nn. 3334-3362 and in the Christie-Miller sale, 1919, nn. 33-52).

The five following being his only contributions to dramatic literature, it may be found convenient to have them listed hereafter (the Bridgewater copies of all five are in the Huntington coll.):

The honourable History of Friar Bacon and Friar Bongay. London, for E. White, 1594. 4°.

Extremely scarce.

$42.50 Huntington (Febr. 1918, VII, n. 389) wanting 3 leaves (Devonshire copy, now W. A. White).

HAWTHORNE (Nathaniel). 1804-1864

See W. H. Cathcart, Bibliography of the works of Nathaniel Hawthorne (Cleveland, Rowfant Club, 1905. 8°); Nina E. Browne, Nathaniel Hawthorne, a bibliography (Boston, Houghton, Mifflin, 1905. 8°); J. C. Chamberlain, First editions of the works of Nathaniel Hawthorne (New York, Grolier Club, 1905. 8°) xi-77 pp.

The finest set of Hawthorne's works yet sold was in the collection of J. Chester Chamberlain (New York, 16 Febr. and 4 Nov. 1909). The earlier items are practically unobtainable in really good condition and of some, only one or two copies appear to have come on the market.

The following list does not include the second and third editions which, for several works, show noteworthy variations from the first and, for that reason, are well worth the attention of the specialist.

Fanshawe, a Tale. Boston, Marsh and Capen, 1828. 12°.

Hawthorne's first and rarest book, always highly appreciated by collectors; about thirty copies have been traced in various collections.

In orig. boards $500-600. — As much as $840 Conely (Oct. 1902, n. 658), resold $350 Maier (Nov. 1909, n. 748); $500 Chamberlain (Febr. 1909, n. 132); $435 Huntington (Febr. 1917, IV, n. 203); $420 Purdy (Apr. 1917, n. 375); $660 H. V. Jones (Jan. 1919, n. 813); $825 Wallace (March 1920, n. 555).

Peter Parley's Universal History on the Basis of Geography, for the Use of Families. Boston, American Stationers' Company, J. B. Russell, 1837. 2 vols. 12°.

In orig. cloth, at least $100. Nearly all copies sold were in poor condition. — $166 Chamberlain (Febr. 1919, n. 140); $152.50 H. V. Jones (Jan. 1919, n. 814).

Twice-told Tales. Boston, American Stationers' Company, J. B. Russell, 1837. 12°.

In orig. cloth $30-40. — $75 Haber (Dec. 1909, n. 784), mor., by Matthews, with autogr. letter added.

The second volume of these tales first appears in the Boston edition, 1842. 2 vols. 16°.

Time's Portraiture, being the Carrier's Address to the Patrons of the Salem Gazette, for the First of January 1838. A folio broadside.

Of extreme rarity, only three copies being known (one in the Essex Institute, at Salem). — $550 Chamberlain (Febr. 1909, n. 144), resold $450 Wallace (March 1920, n. 565).

The Sister Years, being the Carrier's Address of the Salem Gazette for the First of January 1839. Salem, 1839. 8°.

£56 Terry (Febr. 1907, n. 14) mor.

HAYLEY (William). 1745-1820

The chief interest of his works lies in the illustrations by W. Blake.

Designs to a Series of Ballads. Chichester, J. Seagrave, for P. Humphrey and R. H. Evans, 1802. 4°. 4 parts. 6 plates and 8 vignettes by Blake.

Very scarce in the orig. blue wrappers. — $200 Borden (Febr. 1913, n. 89) mor., by Rivière, resold $180 Huntington (Dec. 1917, V, n. 400) and $370 H. V. Jones (Dec. 1918, n. 188).

HEARN (Lafcadio). 1850-1904

His early editions are steadily increasing in value ($5-10). The scarcest item seems to be "Some Chinese Ghosts" (Boston, 1887. 8°) which in orig. cloth, brings $20-25; "Stray Leaves from Strange Literature" (Boston, 1884. 12°) has about the same value.

HEARNE (Thomas). 1678-1735

His works, especially on large paper, were highly valued by English bibliophiles of the early XIXth century such as Lord Spencer, the Duke of Devonshire, Grenville, etc. Full details may be found in Lowndes of the extraordinary prices paid for them about 1815-1820.

Of late years, hardly any fine sets have come on the market. A series of 67 vols. (57 on large paper) in uniform mor., by Bedford, £39 Sotheby's, 27 March 1906, n. 11, wanted only 1 vol.; it was resold £33.10.0 at Sotheby's, 3 February 1913, n. 377.

KELMSCOTT PRESS

Of all the publications of private presses, the Kelmscott Press books are the most celebrated and although their value declined after a period of very high prices (1895-1897), they all remain of permanent interest to every collector of English books. The following list embodies the 53 items which are reckoned to be necessary in a complete set, but specialists add a number of leaflets, broadsides, advertisements and trial proofs.

A complete set of the publications brought £ 255, Sotheby's, 11 Dec. 1903, n. 776.

The finest set sold in late years was M. C. D. Borden's, beautifully bound by Zaehnsdorf and comprising no less than 42 items printed on vellum.

The trial proofs for projected publications include the Froissart (for which see infra n. 46) and single pages (all extremely scarce) of a reprint of Wynkyn de Worde's Vitas Patrum, of an edition of Gower's Confessio Amantis (a copy of this leaf on vellum £ 10 Sotheby's, 20 Apr. 1899, n. 1045) and of the plays of Shakespeare. The Shakespeare leaf is a most valuable literary relic and one of the few copies in existence sold for $625 Bangs', 7 May 1901, n. 254.

LONGFELLOW (Henry Wadsworth). 1807-1882

Bibliographers long used with satisfaction a charming anonymous booklet [Beverly Chew], The Longfellow collector's hand-book, a bib- liography of first editions (New York, W. E. Benjamin, 1885. 16°) 56 pp.; this has been superseded for practical purposes by Luther S. Livingston, A bibliography of the first editions in book form of the writings of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, compiled largely from the collection formed by the late J. C. Chamberlain (New York, 1908. 8°) ix-131 pp. (500 copies printed).

This elaborate and very complete bibliography had as a basis the remarkable collection of first editions brought together by J. C. Chamberlain, of New York, sold by auction in 1909. There are still in Miss Longfellow's library at Cambridge the poet's own copies of practically all his works.

Miscellaneous Poems selected from the United States Literary Gazette. Boston, Cummings, Hilliard and Company and Harrison Gray, 1826. 16°.

Contains no less than fourteen poems by Longfellow.

Very scarce in orig. boards with label: $25-30 and more. — $12.50 Maier (Nov. 1909, n. 1169) boards; $26 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 543) mor., by Matthews; $51 Joline (Dec. 1914, n. 644) boards (Arnold copy).

A copy of the 1658 issue in the T. J. Wise coll., has alone preserved the cancelled dedicatory epistle to Mr. Lee (replaced by an epistle to the Countess of Oxford).

MATHER (Cotton). 1663-1728

All his works are valuable ($50-100 and more). A number are described in the Church Catalogue and other lists of Americana.

The record price is apparently $3450 paid for "The Wonders of the Invisible World" (Boston, B. Harris for S. Phillips, 1693. 8°) at the Huntington sale (Dec. 1917, VI, n. 209) mor., by Rivière.

MATHER (Increase). 1639-1723

It is likewise impossible to do more here than draw attention to the market value of nearly all his works and quote one or two as examples:

The first Principles of New England concerning the Subject of Baptism and Communion. Cambridge [Mass.], S. Green, 1675. 4°.

$405 American Art Association, 8 Febr. 1917, n. 834, half-mor., uncut.

A Brief History of the War with the Indians in New England. Boston, John Foster, 1676. 4°.

Paradise Lost. London, 1667. 4°.

The problems connected with the earliest editions of "Paradise Lost" are so intricate and, to some extent, still so obscure, that hardly more than a general account of the various issues can be given in these pages. What seems certain is that there are at least six different title pages, two of 1667, two of 1668, and two of 1669, but that the text itself was only set up twice during these three years, although minor variations occur in various parts of the volume. A certain number of the copies have at the beginning 14 additional pages with "Arguments" to the books. This additional matter apparently occurs with every one of the six known titles and not, as formerly believed, only with the later issues. In accordance with a time-honored tradition the titles are listed here according to Lowndes-Bohn's numbering, which is generally used by bibliographers. Facsimiles of the whole set are to be conveniently found in The Bibliographer II (1903) pp. 73-91.

It may be added that there is a certain amount of evidence proving the so-called "First title," with the author's name in large capitals, to be really the earliest in date. For instance it has been ascertained (from the Hagen-Newton copy) that the "First title" is part of a signature and not (like the "Second title") a cancel leaf. On the other hand Mr. Wise informs us that he has seen a "Second title" also forming part of the first signature; so that from that fact alone little if anything can be proved.

Part of the manuscript of book I is in the Pierpont Morgan Library.

I. Paradise Lost. A Poem written in ten Books by John Milton. London, Peter Parker, Robert Boulter and Matthias Walker, 1667. 4°.

The "first title" with Milton's name in large sloping capitals.

POPE (Alexander). 1688-1744

The best bibliographical account of Pope's works is A catalogue of the first editions of the works of Alexander Pope (New York, Grolier Club, 1911. 18°) with full descriptions, compiled we believe, by Miss H. C. Bartlett and mainly derived from the copies brought together by Mr. Beverly Chew. A previous effort in the same direction was L. S. Livingston's Alexander Pope, notes towards a bibliography of early editions of his writings, a catalogue of Marshall C. Lefferts' great collection. (New York, [ab. 1905]. 8°), 50 pp. This collection was presented to Harvard by an anonymous donor.

Further information will be found in G. A. Aitken's Notes on the bibliography of Pope in Transactions of the Bibliographical Society, 1911-1913, pp. 113-143.

Pope's first appearance in print was his Pastorals printed in vol. VI of Dryden's Poetical Miscellanies (1709, pp. 721-751).

An Essay on Criticism. London, for W. Lewis [W. Taylor and T. Osborn], 1711. 4°.

The first issue has a half-title and the name of only one publisher (Lewis) in the imprint.

£19.10.0 Sotheby's, 16 May 1901, n. 465, mor., uncut; £15.5.0 Sotheby's, 14 Jan. 1907, n. 1224, orig. wrapper; $10 Hoe (Jan. 1912, II, n. 2738) half-roan (Grant-McKee copy), resold $80 Huntington (Febr. VII, n. 661) now C. W. Clark; $160 Hagen (May 1918, n. 920) mor., by Rivière.

Miscellaneous Poems and Translations by several Hands. London, for B. Lintott, 1712. 8°.

Contains the first edition of The Rape of the Lock (I-II) and of other poems by Pope; additional poems were added in subsequent editions of the collection.

$75 Huntington (Febr. 1918, VII, n. 683) half-mor., by Stikeman (Chew copy, now C. W. Clark); $50 Hagen (May 1918, n. 921) mor., by The Club Bindery.

SCOTT (Sir Walter). 1771-1832

See John P. Anderson's bibliography in Clarence Duke Yonge, Life of Sir Walter Scott (London, W. Scott, 1888. 8°) pp. i-xlix; John Thomson, Descriptive catalogue of the writings of Sir Walter Scott (Philadelphia, 1898. 8°) 106 pp.; neither of the above is written from the collector's standpoint.

Few of his works are really scarce but many are difficult to find in thoroughly good condition. Half-titles are frequently missing and their presence is essential in a collector's copy. The following list of his books is by no means complete. Copies in indifferent state are worth much less than the prices quoted.

A most desirable item is the collected series of the Waverley Novels in first editions (1814-1832, in all 74 vols.) worth in fine condition from $1200 to $1500 and more; a particular well chosen set, in orig. boards, sold for $2005 Osborne (Dec. 1916, n. 868).

A number of Scott's manuscripts were in Robert Cadell's sales (6 July, 1867 and 9 July, 1868).

The Chase and William and Helen, two Ballads, from the German of G. A. Bürger. Edinburgh, Mundell and Son, 1796. 4°.

Waverley or 't is sixty Years since. Edinburgh, J. Ballantyne for A. Constable, 1814. 3 vols. 8°.

The first issue may be told by a misprint in vol. II, p. 136, line 1 (our instead of your).

Waverley is the most valuable of Scott's works, very scarce in boards with the genuine half-titles ($600-800). — £ 150 Sotheby's, 24 April 1899, n. 1160, boards; £ 162, Sotheby's, 21 July 1902, n. 791, boards; £ 200 Arthur (July 1914, n. 604) boards; £ 150 Sotheby's, 17 July 1916, n. 536, mor., by Bedford.

The manuscript was given in 1850 by James Hall to the Advocates' Library; two pages only £ 42 Samuel (July 1907, n. 133), resold £ 40 Sotheby's, 2 June 1908, n. 189. See also Cadell sale, 1867, n. 9.

SHAKESPEARE (William). 1564-1616

The only full bibliography of Shakespeare, perhaps not minutely accurate, but on the whole remarkably satisfactory, is William Jaggard's Shakespeare bibliography (Stratford-on-Avon, 1911. 4°). Much briefer, but thoroughly reliable in detail, is Miss H. C. Bartlett's, Catalogue of the Exhibition of Shakespeareana held at the New York Public Library, 1916 (New York, 1917. 8°). Copies of the First Folio have been listed by Sidney Lee in an appendix to his reprint (Oxford, 1902. Fol.); extant copies of Venus and Adonis, Lucrece, the Sonnets, etc., and likewise of Pericles have been catalogued by the same author in his introductions to the reprints of these works (Oxford, 1905. 4°).

Finally all known copies of the Quartos are registered by Henrietta C. Bartlett and Alfred W. Pollard, A Census of Shakespeare's Plays in Quarto, 1594-1709 (Yale University Press, 1916. 4°).

The following notes—which owe much to the above works and to the kind and direct assistance of Miss Bartlett—describe the rarer editions of Shakespeare in the following order: first the Four Folios and other collected editions; secondly the various poems; thirdly (in alphabetical order) the Quarto editions of the genuine plays printed in the XVIth and XVIIth century; fourthly the Spurious plays; fifth and last, the very scarce anonymous plays, the prototypes of several of Shakespeare's most celebrated dramas.

THE FOUR FOLIOS

[The First Folio]. Mr. William Shakespeares Comedies, Histories, & Tragedies. Published according to the True Originall Copies. London, Printed by Isaac Jaggard and Ed. Blount, 1623. Fol.

The title bears Droeshout's celebrated portrait of Shakespeare existing in two states, the earlier known only by the Bodleian (Malone) and Folger (Halliwell) copies.

The fly-leaf opposite the title bears on the verso Ben Jonson's verses on the portrait.

The order of the seven other preliminary leaves varies in individual copies. See G. Watson Cole, The First Folio of Shakespeare, a further word regarding the correct arrangement of its preliminary leaves (New York, 1909. 8°).

Halliwell Philipps, Sir Sidney Lee and other bibliographers have taken some pains to note variations, chiefly typographical, between extant copies of the First Folio, pointing to considerable editorial activity while the volume was passing through the press. For instance, in two or three copies, page 278 of Hamlet contains over fifteen misprints, gradually corrected as further copies of that sheet were struck off. Three or four copies have at the top of page 333 of Othello the reading "and hell gnaws his bones." Lastly, the Burdett Coutts and Pierpont Morgan copies have preserved an earlier state of the first page of Troilus and Cressida, subsequently cancelled, with the end of Romeo and Juliet (and not the prologue to Troilus) on the recto of the leaf.

Although the First Folio is not an extremely scarce book (about 180 copies have been traced), nothing is scarcer than an absolutely perfect and clean copy. The fly-leaf with the verses is in most cases missing and the title page with Droeshout's portrait is very seldom in really fine condition.

As stated before, the extant copies are elaborately listed by Sir Sidney Lee in an appendix to his facsimile reprint of the Chatsworth (now Huntington) copy. (See a supplement in The Library, VII, 1906, pp. 113-139).

The finest extant copies are apparently the Grenville, Burdett-Coutts and Carter-Brown copies.

The largest set of copies in any single collection is undoubtedly the stately array of over thirty First Folios in the library of Mr. H. C. Folger.

The following are the prices of a few celebrated copies in sales (all were complete unless otherwise stated).

- £716 Daniel (July 1864, n. 1416) russia (now Burdett Coutts).
 - £420 Ouvry (March 1882, n. 1345) mor. (now Lord Crawford).
 - $4200 Brayton Ives (March 1891, n. 893) mor. (now W. A. White).
 - £1700 Christie's, 11 July 1899, n. 309, old calf (now J. E. Widener).
 - £1720 Christie's, 16 July 1901, n. 132, mor. (now Huntington).
 - £3600 Van Antwerp (March 1907, n. 191) mor., by Bedford (now H. E. Widener Library).
 - $13,000 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 2978) old mor. (now H. C. Folger).
 - $7800 Borden (Febr. 1913, n. 661) mor., by Rivière, verses and title in facs., resold $8000 Wallace (March 1920, n. 1169) now Beverly Chew.
 - £2100 Lord Vernon (June 1918, n. 460) mor., several leaves defective.
- A corrected proof of one page £115 Huth (July 1918, n. 6760); a series of leaves in duplicate showing typographical variations £80 Huth (July 1918, n. 6761).

[The Second Folio]. Mr. William Shakespeares Comedies, Histories and Tragedies. Published according to the true Originall Coppies [or Copies]. The second Impression. London, T. Cotes for R. Allot, 1632. Fol.

The names of five different publishers (R. Allot, J. Smethwick, R. Hawkins, W. Aspley and R. Meighen) occur on the title-page; in addition to this, copies with the Allot imprint sometimes read Coppies and sometimes Copies. We thus have six variations of the title-page.

Copies with the Allot imprint are fairly common, the others are all scarce.

Prices of the Second Folio in various sales:

- £148 Daniel (July 1864, n. 1417), resold £540 Orford (June 1895, n. 281), Allot imprint, orig. calf, very tall (now J. E. Widener).
- £350 Hibbert (Apr. 1902, n. 726) Allot imprint, mor. (Jolley copy).
- £690 Sotheby's, 17 March 1902, n. 1273, Smethwick imprint, mor. (then M. J. Perry).
- £615 Sotheby's, 28 July 1902, n. 767, Smethwick imprint, calf.
- £850 Sotheby's, 18 May 1903, n. 1056, Hawkins imprint, old calf.
- $1350 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 2979) Allot imprint, mor., by Rivière.
- $2950 Hagen (May 1918, n. 1073) Allot imprint, green mor., by Rivière (now W. A. Clark, Jr.).

The Second Folio is a reprint of the First Folio. The only variations noted between individual copies are purely typographical, such as page-numbers, etc.

In a few copies, leaf 5 is a cancel, reading on line 17 ypointed instead of ypointing (see Notes and Queries, VIII, 1913, pp. 141-142).

[The Third Folio. First issue]. Mr. William Shakespeares Comedies, Histories and Tragedies. Published according to the true Original Copies. The Third Impression. London, Printed for P. Chetwind, 1663. Fol.

Some copies have Droeshout's portrait on the title-page; in others the space has been left blank.

The 1663 issue of the Third Folio is a volume of considerable scarcity: only two or three copies have appeared in recent sales.

It does not contain the seven additional plays.

[The Third Folio. Second issue]. Mr. William Shakespear's Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies. Published according to the true Original Copies. The third Impression. And unto this Impression is added seven Playes, never before Printed in Folio. viz. Pericles Prince of Tyre. The London Prodigall. The History of Thomas L^d Cromwell. Sir John Oldcastle Lord Cobham. The Puritan Widow. A York-shire Tragedy. The Tragedy of Locrine. London, Printed for P. C., 1664. Fol.

In this issue the portrait is on a leaf opposite the title and is placed above Ben Jonson's verses.

This issue contains for the first time the seven additional plays.

The Third Folio is scarcer than the Second and the Fourth: it has been often stated that part of the edition was destroyed in 1666 in the Fire of London.

Prices of the Third Folio in recent sales:

£ 755 Hibbert (Apr. 1902, n. 727) both 1663 titles, mor., by Bedford (now W. A. Clark, Jr.).

£ 510 Sotheby's, 8 May 1903, n. 410 (1663 issue), russia, 2 first leaves inlaid.

£ 570 Sotheby's, 18 May 1903, n. 1058 (1664 issue) russia.

£ 1550 Buckley (31 May 1907, n. 423), 1663 issue with portr., orig. calf.

$3200 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 2980), 1664 issue, mor., by C. Lewis (Daniel copy, now Beverly Chew).

$2600 Hoe (Jan. 1912, II, n. 3030), 1664 issue, mor., by Mercier.

$3000 Hoe (Nov. 1912, IV, n. 2894), 1664 issue, mor., by Bedford.

$5900 Hagen (May 1918, n. 1075), 1664 issue, red mor., by Bedford (now W. A. Clark, Jr.).

£ 2400 Christie-Miller (Dec. 1919, n. 83), 1664 issue with 1663 title added, orig. calf (Farmer copy).

[The Fourth Folio]. Mr. William Shakespear's Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies. Published according to the true Original Copies. Unto which is added, Seven Plays, Never before Printed in Folio. . . The Fourth Edition. Lon- don, Printed for H. Herringman, E. Brewster and R. Bentley, 1685. Fol.

Three variations of the imprint are known:

1. As given above, "for H. Herringman, E. Brewster and R. Bentley."
2. With a fourth name, "for H. Herringman, E. Brewster, R. Chiswell and R. Bentley."
3. "Printed for H. Herringman and are to be sold by J. Knight and F. Saunders."

The first variation is the more common of the three (see the New York Evening Post, 14 Sept. 1907).

Prices of notable copies of the Fourth Folio (the average price of a fairly good copy being about $500):

- £ 118 Hibbert (Apr. 1902, n. 728) mor.
- £ 142 Sotheby's, 15 Dec. 1902, n. 371, orig. calf.
- £ 215 Sotheby's, 8 Dec. 1903, n. 12 (Knight-Saunders imprint), calf, partly uncut (then M. J. Perry).
- $750 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 2981) mor., by Bedford.
- $910 Robinson (Apr. 1918, n. 830) orig. calf.
- $780 Hagen (May 1918, n. 1076) old calf, Chiswell imprint (now Pforzheimer).

SUBSEQUENT EDITIONS

The innumerable subsequent editions of Shakespeare are described in Jaggard's bibliography. A few of the more important from the collector's point of view are:

Rowe's edition. London, J. Tonson, 1709-1710. 7 vols. 8°.
$200-250 and more on large paper.

Hanmer's edition. Oxford, Printed at the Theatre, 1743-1744. 6 vols. 4°.
$15-20 and more on large paper.

Capell's edition. London, D. Leach for J. and R. Tonson, 1767-1768. 10 vols. 8°.
$15-20 and more on large paper.

Steevens's final edition. London, Longman, etc., 1793. 15 vols. 8°.
$25-30 and more on large paper. — £ 38 Edwardes (May 1901, n. 506) uncut, presentation copy.

Boydell's edition. London, Boydell and Nicol, 1802. 9 vols. Folio.
$40-50.

Malone and Boswell's edition. London, F. C. and J. Rivington, 1821. 21 vols. 8°.
$40-50.

Halliwel's great edition. London, C. and J. Adlard, 1853-1865. 16 vols. Folio.
$350-400.

Scholars will prefer the Cambridge edition (of which there are several issues, $15-20) and, as far as it is completed, H. H. Furness's monumental Variorum edition.

The first edition printed in America bears the imprint Philadelphia, Bioren and Madan, 1795-1796. 8 vols. 8°. — $265 Hagen (May 1918, n. 1097) orig. calf (now C. W. Clark).

VENUS AND ADONIS

I. Venus and Adonis. London, Imprinted by Richard Field, 1593. 4°.

SHELLEY (Percy Bysshe). 1792-1822

The rarer editions of Shelley are the joy and despair of the collector: to own them all is a glorious and unattainable dream. The best guide to their knowledge is H. Buxton Forman, The Shelley Library, an essay in bibliography (London, Shelley Society, 1886. 8°) to which should be added the Hand-list of manuscripts, letters, printed books and personal relics of Percy Bysshe Shelley and his circle, exhibited in the Guildhall Library (London, Blades, 1893. 12°).

Zastrozzi, a Romance. By P. B. S. London, printed for G. Wilkie and J. Robinson, 1810. 12°.

Extremely scarce in orig. blue boards with label (T. J. Wise coll.).

£ 150 Hibbert (Apr. 1902, n. 738) calf, uncut, by Bedford (now Pforzheimer); $550 Hoe (Nov. 1912, IV, n. 2912) mor., uncut (now Huntington); $270 Ives (Apr. 1915, n. 878) mor., uncut (Rowfant copy).

Original Poetry by Victor and Cazire. Worthing, C. and W. Phillips for the Authors and sold by J. J. Stockdale and all other booksellers. 1810. 8°. 64 pp.

Since 1860 this book had been vainly sought for by collectors and bibliographers, when a copy at last turned up in 1898 among the Hussey books, and was purchased by T. J. Wise; since then two other copies have been discovered and both have been obtained by the same collector, one privately, the other at the A. F. Nichols sale (30 Oct. 1903, n. 628: £ 600, half-russia); the Nichols copy is now in the Huntington coll. (from Halsey); the Hussey copy is in the Wrenn Library; the third copy, uncut, is still in the T. J. Wise coll.

Posthumous Fragments of Margaret Nicholson, being Poems found amongst the Papers of that noted Female who attempted the Life of the King in 1786. Edited by John Fitzvictor. Oxford, printed and sold by J. Munday, 1810. 4°. 29 pp.

Only five copies have been traced: 1. Brit. Mus.; 2. Victoria and Albert Museum (Forster coll.); 3. Huntington (the Stainforth-Gardyne-Locker-Halsey copy) wanting the half-title; 4. $6750 Buxton Forman (March 1920, n. 630) (the Hogg copy, now Pforzheimer); 5. T. J. Wise the only uncut copy.

There is a facsimile reprint on thick paper, by R. H. Shepherd.

St. Irvyne, or the Rosicrucian, a Romance, by a Gentleman of the University of Oxford. London, printed for J. and J. Stockdale, 1811. 12°.

In orig. drab boards $120-150. — $340 McKee (May 1902, n. 5433) boards, uncut; $330 Lapham (Dec. 1908, n. 1188) mor., by Rivière, uncut; £ 200 Sotheby's, 22 July 1908, n. 217, uncut, presentation copy to Shelley's uncle; $110 Hoe (Nov. 1912, IV, n. 2913) mor., uncut; $190 Ives (Apr. 1915, n. 879) mor., by Rivière (Rowfant copy).

An Essay on Love. [Horsham, about 1811?].

No copy is now known of this Essay, which Shelley mentions in a letter dated 16 January 1812.

Leonora. [Abingdon, King, about 1811?].

This novel was almost completely set up in type, but not a single copy, proof sheet or manuscript has yet been traced. But was it by Shelley or by Hogg?

The Necessity of Atheism. Worthing, printed by E. and W. Phillips, sold in London and Oxford [1811]. 8°. 16 pp.

The celebrated tract which led to Shelley's expulsion from Oxford. It was carefully destroyed at the time and only three copies are in existence, one (from the Hookham collection and the Shelley family) now in the Bodleian (wanting half-title); the second perfect, given by Shelley to John Rose, and now in the T. J. Wise coll.; the third, from the Shelley family, sold for £630 Sotheby's, 22 July 1918, n. 755, and now belonging to J. A. Spoor.

A poetical Essay on the existing State of Things, by a Gentleman of the University of Oxford, for assisting to maintain in Prison Mr. Peter Finnerty imprisoned for a Libel. London, sold by B. Crosby and Co., 1811.

This pamphlet is only known by contemporary mentions and an advertisement in The Oxford Herald, 9 March 1811. But was it not the same as the Posthumous Fragments?

Poem on a Fete at Carlton House. 1811.

A poem of about 50 lines no copy of which is now extant.

Lines addressed to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales on his being appointed Regent, by Philopatria Jun. London printed [by Hamelin and Seyfang] for Sherwood, Neely and Jones, 1811. 8°. 22 pp.

A copy of this rare anonymous pamphlet belonged to Buxton Forman who at one time considered it to be possibly by Shelley and thought it could be identified with a satirical poem to which Shelley makes several allusions; $2350 Buxton Forman (March 1920, n. 632) now Huntington.

An Address to the Irish People. Dublin, 1812. 8°. Title and 22 pp.

Copies are in the Brit. Mus., the Bodleian, H. E. Widener Library (G. C. Thomas copy) and the collections of T. J. Wise (given by Shelley to Jane Clairmont), J. L. Clawson and C. Pforzheimer; $710 McKee (May 1902, n. 5434) sewn, uncut (then Halsey, now Huntington); £114 Sotheby's, 1 May 1911, n. 411, uncut; £140 Arthur (July 1914, n. 612) mor. black mor.; £220 Sotheby's, 22 July 1918, n. 755, unbound, uncut, autograph corrections (from the Shelley family, now C. W. Clark); $1100 Buxton Forman (March 1920, n. 634) unbound, uncut.

Proposals for an Association of those Philanthropists who convinced of the inadequacy of the moral and political State of Ireland to produce Benefits which are nevertheless attainable, are willing to unite to accomplish its Regeneration. Dublin, printed by I. Eton. [1812]. 8°. Title and 18 pp.

Only two copies are known: the first, which belonged to Sir Francis Freeling and Lord Carlingford and was sold for £530 at Sotheby's, 18 May 1903, n. 684; bought by the late F. R. Halsey, it is now in the Huntington coll.; the second is in the Bodleian.

Declaration of Rights [Dublin, 1812]. A folio broadside.

Only three copies appear to be known, two in the Public Record Office at London, and one attached to the Halsey copy of the Proposals for an Association described above. A fourth copy is stated by Lowndes to have been seen bound with a copy of Queen Mab.

The Devil's Walk, a Ballad. 1812. A folio broadside.

The only copy known is in the Public Record Office, at London.

A Letter to Lord Ellenborough, occasioned by the Sentence which he passed on Mr. D. I. Eaton, as Publisher of the third Part of Paine's Age of Reason. N. p., n. d. 8°. Title and 23 pp.

The Hookham copy belonged to the Shelley family and is now in the Bodleian; no other has yet been found.

Queen Mab, a philosophical Poem, with Notes. London, printed by P. B. Shelley, 1813. 8°.

The title, dedication and imprint were removed by Shelley from a number of copies.

In orig. boards $500-600. — $190 Ives (March 1891, n. 912) presentation copy to Mary Godwin, boards, resold $615 Frederickson (May 1897, n. 1561); £25.5.0 Sotheby's, 28 Febr. 1900, n. 1357, wanting title and last leaf, presentation copy to Leigh Hunt; £166 Sotheby's, 18 May 1903, n. 820, boards; £168 Slater (Febr. 1906, n. 111) boards; $875 Hermann (March 1909, n. 521) boards, presentation copy; $320 Ives (Apr. 1915, n. 880) mor., by Rivière (Rowfant copy); £116 Pearson (Nov. 1916, n. 273) mor., uncut; $660 Hagen (May 1918, n. 1127) mor., uncut, by The Club Bindery (now Pforzheimer); $6000 Buxton Forman (March 1920, n. 635) with numerous autograph corrections by Shelley; $2750 Wallace (March 1920, n. 1187) boards, presentation copy:

A Vindication of Natural Diet, being one of a Series of Notes to Queen Mab, a philosophical Poem. London, Smith and Davy, for J. Callow, 1813. 12°. 2 leaves and 43 pp., wrapper.

Only three copies were known to Buxton Forman: seven or eight are now on record: 1. Brit. Mus. (imperfect); 2. T. J. Wise (uncut in wrapper); 3. $1000 Buxton Forman (March 1920, n. 638A) mor., by Rivière (now Pforzheimer); 4. Pierpont Morgan Library; 5. H. E. Widener Library (Leicester Warren copy); 6. STEVENSON (Robert Louis). 1850-1894

One of the earliest critical attempts to catalogue the rarer editions of R. L. Stevenson was made in 1901 by George M. Williamson. He had purchased a very fine set formed by Charles B. Foote and not included in his three sales; to these Williamson added many scarce items and had the whole catalogued in Luther S. Livingston's Bibliography of Stevenson, catalogue of the collection of the books of Robert Louis Stevenson in the Library of George M. Williamson, Grand View on Hudson (New York, Marion Press, 1901) 95 pp., 150 copies printed.

The Williamson collection formed the basis of the great H. E. Widener collection fully described by A. S. W. Rosenbach, A catalogue of the books and manuscripts of Robert Louis Stevenson in the library of the late Harry Elkins Widener (Philadelphia, 1913. 4°) xii-266 pp. (with a supplement in A. S. W. Rosenbach, A catalogue of the books and manuscripts of Harry Elkins Widener, vol. II, 1918, pp. 171-172).

This should be supplemented by A bibliography of the works of Robert Louis Stevenson by Colonel W. F. Prideaux, a new and revised edition edited and supplemented by Mrs. Luther S. Livingston (London, Hollings, 1917. 8°) viii-401 pp.

Slater's bibliography of Stevenson (1914) is superseded by the above.

The dedication copy to Rossetti, inscribed, £14 Sotheby's, 20 April 1899, n. 985, resold £66 Van Antwerp (March 1907, n. 221) and $400 Lapham (Dec. 1908, n. 1267) now in the H. E. Widener Library; $170 McKee (May 1902, n. 5506) half-mor., presentation copy to Pauline Trevelyan; £32.10.0 Marshall (July 1904, n. 540) presentation copy; $125 Poor (Apr. 1909, n. 1025) mor., by The Club Bindery; $110 H. V. Jones (March 1919, n. 1559); a second dedication copy to Rossetti £ 54 C. F. Murray (July 1919, n. 106).

After a few copies were sold, the book was transferred to Moxon, who issued it with a fresh title (also in 1860) and later to Hotten (1866).

Copies with these later addresses are worth only $5-8 in the orig. green cloth.

The manuscript of Rosamond is in the T. J. Wise coll.

The Children of the Chapel, a Tale. London, J. Masters, 1864. 8°.

Written by Swinburne's cousin Miss Gordon, but corrected by him and with portions from his pen. (The manuscript is in the T. J. Wise coll.).

In orig. red, blue, or brown cloth $30-40.

Dead Love. London, John W. Parker and Son, 1864. 12°.

In orig. red wrapper $30-40. — $50 Lapham (Dec. 1908, n. 1268) wrapper (now H. E. Widener Library); $80 Buxton Forman (March 1920, n. 823) wrapper.

A deceptive fraudulent reprint has the L of London on the title page to the right of (instead of above) the R in Parker.

Atalanta in Calydon, a Tragedy. London, E. Moxon, 1865. 4°. III pp.

A hundred copies were printed.

In orig. white cloth $50-60. — £ 66 Ellis (Nov. 1901, n. 123) mor., presentation copy; $200 Borden (Febr. 1913, n. 727) mor., by The Doves Bindery.

Part of the manuscript is in the Fitzwilliam Museum.

The second edition published the same year contains 130 pp.

Chastelard, a Tragedy. London, E. Moxon, 1865. 16°.

In orig. red or blue cloth $10-15. — $30 Stedman (Jan. 1911, n. 2904) mor., presentation copy; £ 25 Red Cross Sale (Apr. 1916, n. 2315) presentation copy; $25 Buxton Forman (March 1920, n. 824) a set of final proofs with variations (now Pforzheimer).

The manuscript $2000 Borden (Febr. 1913, n. 726).

Sonnet "O Virgin Mother of gentle days and nights." N. p., n. d. [1865?].

A lithographed broadside, the only known copy of which belonged to Dodd and Livingston ($81 Dodd, Nov. 1918, n. 766). The sonnet is printed in "The Exhibition of the Royal Academy of Arts MDCCCLXV." London, W. Clowes, 1865. 8°. This has no claim to be listed as a first edition.

Cleopatra. London, J. C. Hotten, 1866. 16°.

In orig. buff wrapper $40-50. — $60 Lapham (Dec. 1908, n. 1276) wrapper (now H. E. Widener Library).

Laus Veneris. London, E. Moxon, 1866. 8°.

Privately printed. Was at its highest price about 1900, before several copies in folded sheets came on the market. Now worth in sheets $60-80. — £ 23.10.0 Sotheby's, 22 Febr. 1897, n. 1248; £ 16 Van Antwerp (March 1907, n. 223) folded sheets.

Poems and Ballads. London, E. Moxon, 1866. 16°.

Several pages were cancelled during the printing; pages 181-182 seem to be cancelled in all copies.

Copies of the first issue bear Moxon's imprint; the second issue has J. C. Hotten's name.

The first issue, in orig. green cloth $30-40. — £ 22.1.0 Red Cross Sale (Apr. 1915, n. 1754) presentation copy; $60 H. V. Jones (March 1919, n. 1560).

Copies with the imprint of Carleton and Moxon and the title "Laus Veneris and other Poems and Ballads" are of an American reprint of the same year ($10-12).

Notes on Poems and Reviews. London, J. C. Hotten, 1866. 8°.

The first edition shows on the verso of the title the imprint "Savill and Edwards," altered to "Savill, Edwards and Co." in the second edition.

$5-6 and less for the second edition.

Moxon's Miniature Poets, a Selection from the Works of Lord Byron, edited and prefaced by Algernon Chas. Swinburne. London, E. Moxon, 1866. 16°.

In orig. cloth $4-5.

A Song of Italy. London, J. C. Hotten, 1867. 16°.

The first issue was bound in green cloth, copies bound in red and blue cloth being of later issues.

$4-5.

Two autograph manuscripts are in existence: one of these $740 Borden (Febr. 1913, n. 725).

An Appeal to England against the Execution of the condemned Fenians. Manchester, reprinted from the Morning Star, 1867. 12°. 12 pp.

In orig. grey printed wrapper $15-20.

The poem was also published as a broadside, the only known copy of which is in the T. J. Wise coll., together with the manuscript and a contemporary poster.

Dolores. London, J. C. Hotten, 1867. 16°. 24 pp.

The first separate edition.

In orig. wrapper $20-30. — $30 Lapham (Dec. 1908, n. 1278) wrapper.

The manuscript was in the Walter B. Slater coll.

William Blake, A Critical Essay. London, J. C. Hotten, 1868. 8°. Illustrations.

The first issue has the word Zamiel below the woodcut on the title.

In orig. cloth $15-25. — £ 16 Hodgson's, 2 Dec. 1914, n. 170, presentation copy.

The T. J. Wise copy contains two proof sheets of the title with striking variations.

Siena. London, 1868. 12°. 16 pp. Orange or cream wrapper.

One of the rarest of all Swinburniana, only six copies having been printed: 1. Brit. Mus. (no wrapper); 2. T. J. Wise; 3. $107.50 Buxton Forman (March 1920, n. 829) presentation copy to F. Gledstanes Waugh (now Pforzheimer); 4. J. A. Spoor; 5. Harvard (Langmore copy, bought in 1910); 6. £ 134 Sotheby's, 29 June 1916, n. 26 (Chatto copy), afterwards Quaritch.

There is a very deceptive early reprint, fraudulently published by J. C. Hotten; in this, verse 5 is slightly longer than verse 6, whereas, in the original, verses 5 and 6 are exactly of the same length.

The first American edition (Philadelphia, J. B. Lippincott & Co., 1868. 18°. 24 pp.) is worth, in orig. wrapper, $6-8.

TENNYSON (Alfred, Lord). 1809-1892

American collectors will again have the opportunity to avail themselves of the valuable work of Luther S. Livingston by using his Bibliography of the first editions in book form of the works of Alfred Lord Tennyson, the description of a set brought together by Dodd, Mead and Co. [and subsequently purchased by J. Pierpont Morgan], with notes referring to items not included in the set (New York, Dodd, Mead and Co., 1901. 8°) [to which may be added a Supplement of 16 pages, never issued and quite a rarity in itself]. This is far more than a bookseller's catalogue, though of course it does not pretend to compete with T. J. Wise's elaborate researches as condensed in A bibliography of the works of Alfred Lord Tennyson (London, 1908. 2 vols. 8°) xv-363 and 209 pp., 100 copies printed.

The market value of the scarce "trial" editions, which are such a curious feature of Tennyson's bibliography, is not yet a fixed one and recent sales supply astonishingly conflicting data, especially for the books printed after 1870. We believe that, in course of time, prices of these, as of many other similar items, will become steadier, as the demand for them is bound to be greater than the supply.

Poems by two Brothers. London, Simpkin and Marshall, J. and J. Jackson, 1827. 16°.

By Tennyson and his two brothers Charles and Frederick; the original manuscript, sold about 1892 for £480, is at Trinity College, Cambridge.

In orig. drab boards, with label $150-200 and more on large paper. — £51 Sotheby's, 10 June 1903, n. 751, boards; $360 French (Apr. 1901, n. 1552) on large paper, boards; $600 Poor (Dec. 1908, n. 958) mor., large paper, presentation copy to C. R. Haddelsey; $500 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 3214) mor., by Cobden-Sanderson, resold $410 Ives (Apr. 1915, n. 966).

Prolusiones Academicæ Præmiis annuis dignatæ et in Curia Cantabrigiensi recitatæ Comitiis Maximis A.D.M.DCCC.-XXIX. Cambridge, John Smith, 1829. 8°.

Contains (pp. 5-13) Tennyson's poem "Timbuctoo," of which a few copies were printed separately for the author, forming a pamphlet of 16 pages (only four copies have yet been traced: Arnold coll.; T. J. Wise coll.; $330 Hagen, May 1918, n. 1262, mor., by Tiffin, now J. A. Spoor; Maggs Rowfant copy, from Sotheby's, 4 March 1920, n. 277: £78).

The Prolusiones, as issued, sewn $15-20. — $40 McKee (May 1902, n. 5522).

Another separate edition of Timbuctoo (n. p., n. d., 12 pp.), quite different from the above and printed about 1875), sells for $15-20 and should not be mistaken for the genuine 1829 edition.

Poems, chiefly lyrical. London, Effingham Wilson, 1830. 16°.

In the first issue p. 91 is numbered 29 and on p. 72 in some copies Coronet is printed for Coronet.

In orig. drab or pink boards with label $60-80 and much more for the first issue. — £32.10.0 Sotheby's, 20 June 1904, n. 614, boards; $180 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 3216) mor., uncut, by The Club Bindery; £136 Arthur (July 1914, n. 685) presentation copy.

The Lover's Tale. London, E. Moxon, 1833. 16°.

The rarest of all Tennysonian items. Only six copies were printed and of these but four have been traced: 1. £64 Thompson (May 1887, n. 1148) with autograph corrections, bound in calf with "Poems" 1842 (now T. J. Wise coll.); 2. £4.12.0 Sotheby's, June 1870, resold £40 Pickering (1879) then Locker, now J. A. Spoor; 3. C. Templeton Crocker; 4. Messrs. Maggs (Gladstone's copy).

Poems. London, E. Moxon, 1833. 16°.

In orig. drab boards with label $80-100. — £27 Hookins (Apr. 1893, n. 524); £25 Sotheby's, 17 March 1902, n. 1184, presentation copy to Southey; £20 Samuel (July 1907, n. 160) autograph corrections; $80

Lapham (Dec. 1908, n. 1360) mor., by Rivière; $410 Haber (Dec. 1909, n. 1604) autograph inserted; $105 Robinson (Apr. 1918, n. 897) mor., by Rivière.

Morte d'Arthur, Dora and other Idylls. London, E. Moxon, 1842. 16°. No wrapper.

A very rare private trial impression of part of the poems contained in the volume described hereafter. — $490 Morgan (Apr. 1902, n. 357) mor., uncut (then Halsey, now Huntington); £10 Van Antwerp (March 1907, n. 225) unopened sheets; £16 Samuel (July 1907, n. 163) mor., by Rivière, resold £20 Sotheby's, 2 June 1908, n. 192.

Poems. London, E. Moxon, 1842. 2 vols. 16°.

In orig. drab boards with labels $80-100. — £26 Hodgson's, 21 May 1903, n. 493; $205 Hollingsworth (Apr. 1910, n. 1673) mor., by The Doves Bindery.

The Princess, a Medley. London, E. Moxon, 1847. 16°.

In orig. green cloth $10-12. — $35 French (Apr. 1901, n. 1554); £46 Ashburton (Apr. 1912, n. 1286) presentation copy to Carlyle; $42 Coggeshall (Apr. 1916, n. 506) mor., by Zaehnsdorf; $110 Coggeshall (Apr. 1916, n. 507) cloth, with 6 lines of the original manuscript.

In Memoriam. London, E. Moxon, 1850. 16°.

On p. 198, line 3, copies of the first issue read "baseness" instead of "bareness." Likewise, the advertisement is dated February 1850.

The first issue, in orig. purple cloth $15-20. — $80 Hoe (Apr. 1911, I, n. 3218) mor., by Rivière; $125 Clawson (Jan. 1917, n. 121) mor., inlaid and tooled.

The original manuscript is at Trinity College, Cambridge.

Ode on the Death of the Duke of Wellington. London, E. Moxon, 1852. 8°.

In orig. grey wrappers $8-10. — The author's copy, with many corrections and additions £155 Puttick's, 26 June 1913, n. 181.

Maud and other Poems. London, E. Moxon, 1855. 16°.

In orig. green cloth $10-12. — £25.10.0 Samuel (July 1907, n. 163) mor., by Rivière, autograph corrections; $110 Hoe (Jan. 1912, II, n. 284) mor., by Cobden-Sanderson; $60 Borden (Febr. 1913, n. 746) mor., by Cobden-Sanderson.

There once existed a trial issue of Maud entitled "Maud or the Madness" of which the only known copy was destroyed by Coventry Patmore. A few pages from it, formerly in Sir John Simeon's coll., now belong to W. H. Arnold.

The Charge of the Light Brigade. London, E. Moxon, 1855. 4°.

A leaflet of 4 pages reprinted from Maud at Tennyson's expense, 1000 copies, for distribution among the soldiers in Crimea. Extremely scarce.

A corrected proof on one page folio $440 Morgan (Apr. 1902, n. 345); the same (?) £100, Sotheby's, 20 June 1904, n. 688.

Enid and Nimue or the True and the False. London, E. Moxon, 1857. 8°.

A "trial" edition of two further Idylls. Only two copies are known, one presented to the British Museum in 1893 by Palgrave, the other in the Forster Library; a set of proof sheets, lacking the title, £210 Sotheby's, 20 June 1904, n. 694 (now in the W. H. Arnold coll.).

Wedding Verses. 25 January 1858. A single sheet.

Stanzas on the marriage of the Princess Royal.

The only known copy is in the T. J. Wise coll.

The True and the False, four Idylls of the King. London, E. Moxon, 1859. 8°.

A second "trial" edition of Enid and Nimue. Two issues exist each being now known by a single extant copy (W. H. Arnold and Forster coll.); yet a third issue is represented by a copy belonging to Messrs. Maggs.

On these "trial" editions, see T. J. Wise, The building of the Idylls, in his Literary anecdotes of the nineteenth century, II (1896) pp. 222-272.

Idylls of the King. London, E. Moxon, 1859. 16°.

In orig. green cloth $8-10. — $120 Poor (Febr. 1909, n. 796) mor., in-laid binding by The Club Bindery.

The Sailor Boy. London, Emily Faithfull, 1861. 16°. 8 pp., cream printed wrapper.

A reprint of 25 copies for the author's use from The Victoria Regia, a Christmas Miscellany.

$275 Morgan (Apr. 1902, n. 426) mor., uncut; $305 Poor (Dec. 1908, n. 961) mor., by Rivière, resold $85 Wallace (March 1920, n. 1291); $72.50 Huntington (Nov. 1918, IX, n. 567) wrapper.

Helen's Tower. Clandeboyne, 1861. 4°.

Privately printed for Lord Dufferin about 1850; then consisted of a green wrapper, an engraved title and 4 leaves, the last blank; for this final blank was substituted in 1861 a leaf with Tennyson's verses; in 1870, a double leaf with a poem by Browning (on the recto of leaf 1) was again added at the end. The book should thus contain a title and 6 leaves, the last being blank. — £56 Sotheby's, 20 Nov. 1899, n. 1389, mor.; $390

Lapham (Dec. 1908, n. 1367) with the autograph of Browning's verses (now H. E. Widener Library).

Several copies without the last leaf which contains Browning's verses have sold for $100-120.

Ode for the Opening of the International Exhibition. London, E. Moxon, 1862. 16°. No wrapper.

£ 5.5.0 Sotheby's, 18 Apr. 1904, n. 727; $46 Hermann (March 1909, n. 558).

This Ode is also found with the Music by Sterndale Bennett in 4 parts folio, possibly an earlier impression.

Idylls of the King. New Edition. London, E. Moxon, 1862. 16°.

Dedicated to the memory of the Prince Consort.

A few copies of the preliminary leaves were printed for special distribution by the author.

Poems. MDCCCXXX. MDCCCXXXIII. Privately printed, 1862. 16° in blue wrappers.

A scarce pirated volume published by Hotten and suppressed after legal proceedings had been taken. $15-20.

See "Amended Bill of Complaint filed by Alfred Tennyson in Chancery against John Camden Hotten. . . ."

A Welcome. London, E. Moxon, 1863. 16°.

THACKERAY (William Makepeace). 1811-1863

Richard Herne Shepherd, The bibliography of Thackeray (London, Elliot Stock, 1880. 8°) viii-62 pp., is no longer of much value. It can be supplemented by Charles Plumptre Johnson, Hints to collectors of original editions of the works of William Makepeace Thackeray. (London, G. Redway, 1885. 8°). 48 pp.

By far the most reliable information is to be found in [Ruth S. Gran-niss], Catalogue of an exhibition commemorating the hundredth anniversary of the birth of William Makepeace Thackeray (New York, Grolier Club, 1912. 8°). xii-141 pp.

The most important collection of Thackerayana sold in recent years was that of Major Lambert of Philadelphia (New York, 25 February 1914); the finest series in private hands belongs to H. S. Van Duzer, of New York and is described by him in A Thackeray Library, belonging to Henry Sayre Van Duzer (New York, 1919. 8°). xiii-198 pp.

The Snob, a literary and scientific Journal, not "conducted by Members of the University." Cambridge, W. H. Smith, 1829. 12°. 11 weekly parts (9 April-18 June).

Printed on variously tinted papers, with coloured wrappers; the first page of each part bears in most copies the words second, third or fourth edition, but a set is known without any such designation (Cambridge Free Library). Also found in book form, in buff printed boards, but with margins trimmed.

This magazine, and the Gownsmen contain Thackeray's first printed productions.

$150-200. — $1000 Borden (Febr. 1913, n. 776) boards; $2000 Lambert (Febr. 1914, n. 774) boards.

The Gownsmen, formerly called "The Snob," a literary and scientific Journal now conducted by Members of the University. Vol. II. Cambridge, W. H. Smith, 1830. 12°.

Published in 17 weekly parts (5 Nov. 1829-25 Febr. 1830).

Exists in book form, in green printed boards, with margins trimmed. $480 Hermann (March 1909, n. 564) boards; $1000 Borden (Febr. 1913, n. 777) boards; $850 Lambert (Febr. 1914, n. 775) boards.
